Windstorms in Western Nebraska Take Toll—Property Damage Expected to Run Into Thousands of Dollars.

LEXINGTON AND BROKEN BOW HIT

Storm Most Destructive in Territory Near Broken Bow —Farm Houses Are Demolished.

BOY 16, KILLED.

(Special to The Star.)

BROKEN BOW, Neb., May 11.—One loss of life and thousands of dollars of damage to property was the toll of the terrific storm of Wednesday night. Two inches of rain fell within three hours. Lines of communication are down east of here.

Edward McArthur, 16-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. McArthur of this city, was instantly killed by flying timber while making his way from the ranch home of the family to a cave nearby. The buildings on this ranch which is one miles east of Weissert, were all wrecked.

Farmers living east and soupth of here in the path of the storm lost heavily in farm buildings and stock.

(Associated Press.)

OMAHA, May 11.—Three persons were killed and widespread damage was done as a result of windstorms in various parts of Nebraska yesterday and last night, according to advices received here today.

B. F. Glenn and son, of Hildreth, Neb., two of the victims, were electrocuted during a windstorm there according to word received by Mrs. Glenn, who is here attending a convention of the order of Eastern Star. No details were given.

Advices received by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company, said one person was killed and several injured by a tornado that swept territory between Broken Bow and Ansley, Neb., though details could not be obtained because communication facilities were in a demoralized state.

Kearney, Neb, advices said that two persons had been hurt by a tornado near Lexington, Neb. Small buildings at Oconto, Bloomfield, O'Neil and Sumner, Neb., were wrecked. Twenty buildings, mostly small homes and barns were demolished at the latter town, but so far as could be learned, there was no loss of life.

Railroad advices also told of high water conditions in the Black hills region of South Dakota where there was a heavy snow and rain storm.

From Sioux City, Ia., came a report that flood conditions prevailed in the Red water and Bellefourche river valleys of South Dakota and that thousands of acres of small grain and sugar beet land were inundated. Some residents in Bellefourche have been forced to move.

Property in the vicinity of Lexington apparently suffered the most damage, about a half dozen farm homes being destroyed. Among them was the residence of Benjamin Berman, who with several members of his family, escaped injury by running from the place before the storm struck. Only a few splinters from the home of John Curley, could be found after his place had been wrecked but Curley and his family saved themselves by running to the basement. Curley's livestock was killed.

Bad At Broken Bow.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 11.—At 9:30 this morning communication between Kearney and Lexington had not been restored. It has been learned, however, that near Sumner, between fifteen and twenty buildings were wrecked, mainly barns and small homes. So far as known there was no loss of life.

The Union Pacific reports half a mile of wires down between Lexington and Josslyn, it operating a small section of the double track system without dispatching. Near Oconto, half way between Broken Bow and Lexington, the storm did similar loss of life. The damage in the vicinity of Lexington in estimated at $100,000

Highway Findings Not Completed

The state highway investigating commission had not reached an agreement on its findings at 2 p. m., Thursday. It met for a short time in the forenoon, without Governor McKelvie, he being with the state board of equalization at that time, and partially considered drafts covering different parts of the testimony prepared respectively by Attorney General Davis, C. H. Epperson and F. M. Rickard, and then adjourned until afternoon, when the governor was expected to be present.

Mr. Epperson disagreed with some of his colleagues on a part of their conclusions, and it was anticipated that some parts of the report would have to be redrawn.

GERMANY SIGNS A MILITARY TREATY WITH BOLSHEVIKI

Negotiation of Alleged Pact Exposed When French Paper Prints Text.

Teutons Agree to Furnish Red Army With Arms and Powder.

(Associated Press.)

PARIS, May 11.—The newspaper L'Eclaire today printed the text of a military convention said to have been signed by representatives of the Russian soviet army and the German general staff in Berlin, April 3, by the principal clause of which the Germans agree to furnish the red army with the arms and material necessary to equip 180 regiments of infantry and sufficient heavy field artillery for twenty infantry divisions.

The German general staff, according to the convention, pledged to reorganize the Russian Baltic and Black sea fleets and to supply at the earliest possible date, 500 new airplanes, together with a supply of spare parts and 150 field wireless outfits. The Germans would train sixty Russian instructors in the latest discoveries and inventions of chemical warfare and send technical experts to Russia to speed up the existing munition plants and open new factories.

The red army staff guarantees to establish in Russia three German plants, one for the manufacture of airplanes, one for poison gas and one for arms on condition that the Russian army can use the output when needed. German specialists would be admitted to the "new arms factory in Afghanistan."

The text presented by L'Eclaire also says the Russians would promise to maintain not less than eighteen infantry and eight cavalry divisions on the western Russian frontier. The red serff further would agree to increase the capacity of the Alexandrovsk and Nikolaievsk railroads.

Finally the convention says the two staffs will prepare a joint plan of operations for Russia's access to the Baltic sea, and the contracting parties bind themselves to keep the convention secret. The document is signed, according to the newspaper, by Novitski Stefanas, Major General Von Seecht, Vice Admiral Behncke, Lieutenant Scharf and Major Fetter.

BOARD'S DECISION AGAINST CARRIER

Rail Labor Body Rules "Farming Out" Work Violation of Federal Law.

(International News Service.)

CHICAGO, May 11.—The United States railroad labor board today awaited the next move of the nation's railroads following the board's decision, forbidding "farming out" work at low wages interpreting that practice as a violation of the federal law.

Rail shopmen and switchmen are now compiling votes among their 600,000 members for a strike in protest against the contract system used by some railroads by which contractors paying lower wages than railroads had taken over entire shops formerly owned by the carriers. More than 150,000 men are estimated to be working in such shops.

The board's decision came in a test case between the Federated Shopcrafts and the Indian Harbor belt railway. Other cases are before the board. The one against the Erie railroad has been bitterly contested and strikes have been called in many of the shops formerly owned by the road. The unions charge the shops are under control of contracting companies with no changes in personnel or management.

Approximately 1500 workmen at the Western Maryland railroad are on strike against the "farming out" system.

Upon the decision may hinge the final test of the rail board's doubtful power. If the injunctions against the decision are asked a decision may be made interpreting the transportation act and the authority it gives the board. Under the decision contractors doing work for railroads must pay the same wage scales as those set up by the board for similar work done in railroad shops.

Lions Hear Speech by Long Distance

Melvin H. Jones, national secretary of the Lions clubs, addressed the local Lions at a luncheon given by Messrs. Trimble, Brewster, Lemon and Woods at the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company building, Thursday noon. Mr. Jones was in Chicago, and his voice was transmitted over an ordinary telephone connection, with an amplifier in the room. Short talks were also made by W. E. Bell, T. E. Russell and Frank Woods. Guy Reed, president of the club, presided. A number of novel electric stunts were demonstrated, and the visitors shown over the entire telephone plant.

RAILROADS MAKE PLEA FOR LOWER VALUATION FIGURE

Burlington and Northwestern Representatives Ask for Reduced Assessments.

Numerous Charts Shown to Prove Carriers Taxed More Than Others.

Itepresentatives of the Burlington and Northwestern railroads appeared before the state board of assessment Thursday morning and made their annual plea for a reduction of assessment. The other railroads were to be heard during the afternoon. The gathering of attorneys and tax experts was an unusually large one and the showing and arguments made by the Northwestern were of an extensive and elaborate character. Present on behalf of this road were T. A. Polleys, tax commissioner; F. W. Sargent, general solicitor; C. F. Balch, general auditor; Wymer Dressler, the Nebraska attorney and R. W. McGinnis, general agent.

Mr. Sargent made the principal statement and argument for the Northwestern, while Mr. Balch explained by the use of charts the system of arriving at valuations. Mr. Sargent stated that the property of the Northwestern in Nebraska is valued at ten millions in excess of its true value, being assessed for $10,375,000. It never earned dividends on any such valuation and would never ask to. He took the position that a railroad company should be allowed to earn dividends on what had been put into the property and should be taxed on what it is able to take out. Last year the Northwestern lacked three millions of dollars of earning enough to pay its interest charges. Its pay roll amounted to forty-seven millions of dollars whe nthe government took charge and to 110 millions when the road was turned back, while its taxes had been doubled. The road is willing to pay taxes on any valuation it is allowed to earn six per cent upon.

Actual Value $32,000,000.

Mr. Balch showed by numerous charts that the actual value of the company's property in Nebraska is only thirty-two millions of dollars, or $28,129 per mile, while it is assessed for over forty million dollars. In arriving at the value he used six different formulas, and then taking the average of these. He took the par value of stocks and bonds, the market

Burlington Says Reasonable Depot Service Is Given

Answer to complaints of inadequate depot service against the Burlington railroad from several Nebraska towns which will be heard by the state railway commission Friday has been filed with that body by the railroad company.

Concerning the "split tricks" of station agents at Berwyn, Comstock, Giltner and Glade Rock, the Burlington says it is giving reasonable service at all these places, in accordance with rules promulgated by the federal railroad labor board allowing it to dispense with needless employes and save their wages. By getting rid of custodians, $36 a month was saved at Comstock and $20 a month at Giltner.

Mountain time is followed at Berwyn, the Burlington states, because the interstate commerce commission so ordered.

At Hazard, another place from which complaint was made, the railroad company asserts the service is the same as it was before.

ATTEMPT TO OUST

Governor McKelvie Asked to Remove Three County Officials in Thurston and Saunders Counties.

MEN CITED TO APPEAR SATURDAY

Alleged Failure to Enforce Dry Law Basis of Complaint Against Flynn and Sheriff Rutledge and Attorney Bryant.

In response to petitions filed by citizens of Thurston county charging County Judge Frank Flynn and Sheriff Charles Rutledge with drunkenness and other improper personal and official conduct and failure to enforce the prohibition laws of Nebraska, Governor McKelvie has cited the two men to appear before him at Lincoln on Saturay, May 13, at 10:30 a. m., and show cause why they should not be removed fro moffice.

Acting on similar petitions from Saunders county, the governor has notified County Attorney H. A. Bryant to appear at 11 a. m., on the same day and present his defense against being ousted fro office.

The Thurston county complaints were verified by agents of Federal Prohibition Director U. S. Rohrer and State Sheriff Gus Hyers, who were sent there to investicate after informal representations had reached Governor McKelvie.

In the case of the Saunders county attorney, a elegation of twenty-two Wahoo citizens called on the governor several weeks ago and asked that steps be taken for his removal They were informed that no action could be taken except on formal written charges. These are now in the governor's hands.

Statement by Governor.

The situation in Thurston county and the delinquencies charged against the two officials there are set forth in the following statement given out Thursday morning by Governor McKelvie, after a conference in his office with Attorney General Davis, State Sheriff Hyers, and the men who made the investigation:

"Many complaints have been received from residents of Thurston county that the county judge and the sheriff were lax in enforcing the state prohibitory law. Several responsible people took this matter up with Governor McKelvie sometime ago, and asked for an investigation by state men. Governor McKelvie took the matter up with Mr. U. S. Rohrer of the federal prohibition department and State Sheriff Hyers, and asked that they make an investigation. T. W. Carroll of the federal department and O. D. Hedge and R. N. Fulton, of the state department, returned today from Thurston county and submitted the results of their investigation to Governor McKelvie and Attorney General Clarence A. Davis.

"According to the statement of the investigators, both Judge Frank Flynn and Sheriff Charles Rutledge have not only been lax in enforcing the prohibitory law, but the investigators state that they have positive evidence where the judge and sheriff,

JEWELRY TAKEN FROM APARTMENT

H. F. St. John Loses Valuables — Series of Burglaries.

Captain Walter Anderson and Officer N. F Schneible are investigating a series of robberies and burglaries which occurred in Lincoln during the past forty-eight hours, and believe that certain clues which they are following will lead them to the persons responsible for the crimes.

Wednesday the apartment of H. F. St. John, Mellick Court, was robbed, the burglars carrying off a purple plush jewelry case containing the following articles; one quarter carat diamond stud; one half carat ruby, one full pearl Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity pin with chain and guard; one round gold fraternity pin; two pairs of cuff links; one watch fob with seal; one white saphire stick pin and five tuxedo shirt studs. The jewelry case was laying on the dresser.

Wednesday night, a burglar raised the north window at the home of Mrs. C. R. Caves 2828 Potter street, and entered. He made some racket walking around the rooms in the darkness and awakened Mrs. Caves. She looked through the bed room door and saw the man plainly in a mirror in the next room, she told the police. Waking up her husband, she got out of bed, when the burgler discovered her and dove out through the window, taking with him a pair of overalls and a pair of trousers belonging to Mr. Caves. There was $3 cash in the trousers.

Before Mr. Caves could get to the door the intruder had disappeared. It happened about 2:30 a. m., according to the police, and the prints of the burglars shoes were plainly visible in the mud.

Police also received report of an attempt to break in at 725 North Tenth street Wednesday night, but nothing was missed there.

URGES STATEMENT FROM BORROWERS

Hart Recommends That State Banks Adopt Practice of Nationals.

Examiners Instructed That This Is Imperative Requirement.

All state banks in Nebraska are being urged by Trade and Commerce Secretary Hart, in a circular letter just mailed out, to adopt the practice now in vogue among the national banks of requiring borrowers to make financial statements in applying for loans of $500 or more when ample collateral security is not given.

Hart recommends the use of statement blank forms used by members of the federal reserve system. His letter addressed to boards of directors of state banks says:

"The necessity of requiring financial statements from borrowers has long been apparent to this department, and an endeavor has been made to impress this necessity upon the managements of all state banks and you have been requested on a former occasion to adopt a system of requiring these statements from borrowers of $500 or more, whose loans are not adequately secured by liquid collateral, satisfactory financial statements upon which to base accommodations extended.

"It is the desire of this department that all state banks shall co-operate with the national banks, who are now required by the comptroller to obtain such information. You are therefore requested and urged to put this plan into practice immediately and all examiners are instructed that this is an imperative requirement hereafter, and all new loans, or renewals, will be expected to have this information for the benefit of the examiner and for the officers and directors or their successors."

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 11.—The first case of drowning of the season occurred here early today when C. R. Schoelkofe, St. Paul, Minn., agent for a hail insurance company, was found dead in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. He had been taking a room in the association's building intermittently, for some time and made it a custom to take a plunge before breakfast. The body was still warm when recovered and the fire department responded to a pulmotor call but thirty minutes of effort failed to restore a spark of life. The physician expressed the conviction that the victim had suffered an attack of the heart.

Girl, Mother at 17, Given Divorce by Judge Morning

Florence A. Dubuque, nee Schwartz, 17 years old, was granted a decree of divorce from Willis E. Dubuque, 19, by District Judge W. M. Morning, Thursday. Mrs. Dubuque said she was one of a family of thirteen children and married Dubuque in June, 1921, following a three months acquaintance. Dubuque said he and his wife had "stories" about their ages. They have one child. Mrs. Dubuque was awarded custody of their child and $15 a month for the baby's support.

Mrs. Dubuque said her husband had worked only about two weeks since their marriage. They lived during most of their married life at the home of Dubuque's mother. The younger Mrs. Dubuque said her mother-in-law was cruel to her and ordered her from the house about three weeks after the child was born. Because of her husband's physical abuse of her, Mrs Dubuque said her health had been impaired.

Assessor Says Expects County to Lose Tax Suit

A letter from County Assessor F. C. Rundle of Hamilton county to State Tax Commissioner Osborne says that he expects the county to lose in its suit against a paving company to collect taxes on $52,000 of paving material which was assembled at Aurora on April 1, 1921. The case was heard recently before Judge Corcoran of York.

Newspaper clippings were enclosed which quoted Judge Corcoran as saying, after the testimony was taken, that State Tax Commissioner Osborne had gone "tax mad" and would tax all the schools and churches in Nebraska if he were allowed to do so. Another remark attributed to the judge was that if paving material were assessed and taxed it would increase the cost of paving to the property owners, as contractors would add it to their expense of doing business.

If the county is beaten in the district court, says Assessor Rundle it will appeal.

LINCOLN IS HOST TO CONGRESSMEN

Graham, Reavis and Ireland to Attend Meeting at Auditorium.

G. O. P. State Committee Decides on Place for Convention in August.

Three congressmen will be present at the auditorium meeting Thursday evening. Besides Congressman W. J. Graham of Illinois, who is the principal speaker, Congressman C. F. Reavis of the First Nebraska district and Congressman Ireland of Illinois will have seats on the stage. Reavis was due to arrive from Washington on an afternoon train, after stopping over for the day in Omaha. Ireland is national commander of the Sons of Veterans, and has been attending the state encampment this week.

Governor McKelvie is to preside at the auditorium and introduce Congressman Graham. Congressman Reavis will be given a few minutes unless he desires not to be heard.

Congressman Graham came in on a morning train and spent the time until noon resting at the Lincoln hotel. He was Governor McKelvie's guest at luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, where he met a number of the state republican leaders and Lincoln business men.

R. F. Stout, Jack Matthews and F. P. Corrick were the local reception committee which met Congressman Graham. They and State Chairman McCloud were among the governor's luncheon guests.

Convention Probably at Lincoln.

In advance of the republican state committee meeting, scheduled for 3 o'clock at the Lindell hotel, no other place than Lincoln was being discussed as the place for holding the state convention next August. The apportionment of delegates based on the presidential vote in 1920 was to be decided.

Congressman Graham was expected to be present during a part of the committee session. State Chairman McCloud said that Mr. Graham might deliver a short talk there.

The state committee meeting would be open to the public, Chairman McCloud announced. The committee membership is 66—one man and one woman for each senatorial district of Nebraska.

"Are there likely to be any resolutions?" was asked of the chairman.

"Don't know, but I hope not," he replied. "We want to steer clear of everything like that. This is entirely a business session."

Republican candidates for state offices were numerous around the Lindell hotel lobby. C. H. Randall, Adam McMullen and A. H. Byrum, the trio of gubernatorial aspirants were among them. The first two of these had headquarters rooms in the hotel.

MAKE HAUL OF JEWELS

Nebraska City Scene of Bold Daylight Robbery Thursday Morning — Bandits Lock Store Employes in Room and Escape With Diamonds

LOOT IS ESTIMATED AT ABOUT $4.500

Posse Organized by Otoe County Sheriff and Omaha Police Searching for Robbers Who Escaped in Automobile.

(Special to The Star.)

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 11.—Two bandits walked into the Foley jewelry store here at 9 o'clock this morning and after locking the proprietor, C. F. Foley and an employe in a small room, scooped up a large number of diamonds and other jewelry and escaped in an automobile.

After releasing themselves, the jewelers notified the police who immediately started in pursuit of the bandits. The holdups went south from here.

The bandits, upon entering the store, asked for a loan on a watch. Mr. Foley replied that the store did not engage in this feature of the business, whereupon one of the stickup artists at the point of a gun, forced the proprietor and an employe into the lavatory. The initials engraved on the watch were "F. A. S."

The robbers were traced to Union then west to Ashland, where they crossed the bridge and are believed to have headed for Omaha.

Posse on Trail.

OMAHA, May 11.—A posse organized by the sheriff at Nebraska City, and the Omaha police today began a search for two unmasked armed men who held up the C. F. Foley jewelry store at Nebraska City at 9 a. m., and escaped in an automobile with $1,600 worth of diamonds and watches worth $3,500 after locking Mr. Foley and a clerk in a lavatory.

TO AUCTION OFF MUNICIPAL BONDS

Dayton Will Sell $113,420 Issue to the Highest Bidder.

City Treasurer Expects Many Bids From Local and Outside Firms.

For the first time in the history of Lincoln, and possibly for the first time in the history of Nebraska more than $100,000 worth of municipal bonds will be sold at auction to the highest bidder at the city hall Thursday afternoon.

City Treasurer George Dayton is responsible for the idea. Lincoln municipal bonds have been very much in demand in recent years and have brought some unusual premiums. There is only one condition to the sale of the bonds by auction—no bid will be considered that does not equal or exceed the face value of the bonds plus accrued interest from May 1, this year, the date of the bond issue, at 5½ per cent.

The exact amount of the bond issue is $113,420, and is made up of special assessment bonds covering street and alley paving and re-paving and pavement resurfacing.

The sale will be held in the city clerk's office. Mr. Dayton will be the auctioneer. It is expected that there will be at least a dozen local bidders and a half dozen or more from Omaha, New York, Chicago and other large cities.

Group I Bankers to Convene Here

Group one of the Nebraska Bankers association will meet in Lincoln May 25. They will be given a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce at noon and hold a banquet at the Lincoln hotel in the evening. About 250 bankers from the southeastern part of the state are expected. Local arrangements are in charge of Carl Weil of the National bank of Commerce and George Woods of the Lincoln State bank.

J. C. Dort of Pawnee City arrived to remain over the week end as a guest at the home of his son Assistant Attorney General C. L. Dort

William Sutton of Table Rock was among the veterans attending the state G. A. R. reunion this week. Mr. Sutton is one of the early settlers in southeastern Nebraska. He served in the legislature from Pawnee county nearly thirty years ago.

CASE IS DROPPED.

The case of William Miller colored, charged with selling some eggs which were decomposed according to the complaint of Morris Arensen, was dismissed in Justice Hawes court Wednesday noon, on motion of the county attorney

Assistant County Attorney Lum Dooyle said that the case was dismissed when it became apparent that the complaint was filed against Miller to compel him to pay a debt of $3, which he owed Arenson.

"Arenson was more anxious to collect the $3 than to see conviction on the complaint" Mr Doyle said and the county attorney therefore dismissed the case."

OVER 2,000,000 MILES TRAVELED IN NINE MONTHS

Money Spent by State Would Send One Hundred People Around the World.

Nebraska Officials and Employes Travel at Rate of $300,000 Per Year.

One hundred people going from Lincoln on a tour of the world, across the Pacific and Atlantic oceans and through all the principal countries of Asia and Europe, would travel no farther in the aggregate than the distance covered by state officers, inspectors and other subordinates during the period of nine months from July 1, 1921, the beginning of the present fiscal biennium, to April 1, 1922.

The distance from the earth to the moon is approximately 240,000 miles, and a train running fifty miles per hour day and night without stop would require 200 days to complete the trip. Ten such lunar expeditions could be taken on a mileage equal to that which the state of Nebraska has paid for during the nine months referred to.

According to a tabulation which State Finance Secretary Bross has compiled at the request of newspaper men, the total amount of money charged to the state for railroad fare in that period of time was $84,162, and the total distance this would pay for by rail at 3.7 cents per mill is 2,357,862 miles.

Big Bill For Auto Hire.

But the figures on railroad fare do not tell the whole story. Huge expenditures have also been made for traveling by automobile. Bills under that heading, paid by the state, amounted in the nine months to $47,-302. Allowing 10 cents a mile as the average rate, this adds 476,020 miles to the aggregate distance traveled by state officers and employes.

While making these travels, the different persons whose disbursement for railroad fare and automobile hire are borne by the state incurred further expenses of $79,457 for board and lodging, which also was charged to the public treasury. Their miscellaneous other expenses came to $9,824.

Adding the various items of expenditure together, the combined outlay by the state for cost of travel by those upon its payroll was $220,945 in the nine months, or at the rate of about $300,000 per year.

Nothing is included in the above computation for upkeep, gasoline and oil in connection with automobiles owned by the state and used to carry officials and employes on their journeyings. Neither does it take into account the purchase of new cars by different departments. These two items would increase the aggregate by thousands of dollars.

Code Departments Spent $83,865.

Of the $220,945 total, the six code departments of the state government spent $83,865, or 38 per cent, distributed as follows:

Public works, $36,361; trade and commerce, $21,695; agriculture, $14,-093; public welfare, $9,997; labor, $761; finance, $48.

Railroad fare for the code secretaries and their assistants aggregated $24,656 in the nine months period; the automobile hire and allowances, $37,-086; board and lodging, $13,690; miscellaneous, $6,433.

Combined travel expenditures of the other state departments are shown in Secretary Bross's summary as herewith:

Legislature (mileage of members for special session.) $3,356; district courts, $7,609; governor, $1,287; auditor (including state accountant and two county treasury examiners.) $2,-086; attorney general's office, $8,888; state superintendent, $1,754; railway commission, $4,963; state sheriff and deputies, $8,723; tax commissioner $1,044, national guard $2,173, vocation education, $3,026; capitol commission, $886; board of educational lands and funds, $172; library commission, $134; state board of pardons, $348; state historical society, $240.

Institution Traveling Expense.

The state university is charged with $50,541 total traveling expenses for the nine months. More than one-third of this, or $18,963, was incurred on trips by the football team and other branches of university athletics, which is entirely paid for out of gate receipts at games and at the matches.

Agricultural extension work, carried on throughout the state, under supervision of the college of agriculture, was responsible for $10,785 of traveling expense. Administration of the Smith-Lever fund cost $5,525 under that heading; other agricultural college work, $5,551; special university activities, $3,539; general administration, $2,307; agricultural experiment station, $1,894; and other university departments less amounts.

The Kearney state normal school ran up bill sfor traveling expense that exceed the combined total for three other state normals and the normal board. State Superintendent Matzen, a member of the board, does not know how to explain this The figures are:

Kearney normal $3,007; Peru, $3,-466; Chadron, $680; Wayne, $194; the normal board, $566.

Cost of travel for the board of control members in the nine months was $439. The seventeen institutions under the boards supervision incurred $8,607 of expense, of which the largest item was $4,696 for automobile hire and allowances. Railroad fare was charged at $2,123.

Holdup is Limit And That's What a Stickup Man Got

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 11.—Stickups are all right in their place so far as crimes go.

But when a bold bandit interrupts a young couple's tete-a-tete in a park of a soft summer's evening—that's "out."

Judge Ralph S. Latshaw thus came to the rescue of loving swains today when he considered the case of Paul White, charged with robbery.

White admitted he utterly ruined the evening for a couple of young spooners he found in a secluded corner of Swope park when he tied the girl's escort to a tree and robbed him of $4.50.

"That's the limit," said Judge Latshaw, "and that's what you'll get. Twenty years in prison.

BEND EFFORTS TO RECONCILE U. S.

Soviets Will Open Campaign for Recognition by the United States.

(International News Service.)

MOSCOW, May 11.—A campaign to reconcile the United States to soviet Russia as the first step towards securing American recognition of the Moscow government, will be undertaken shortly by the all-Russian executive committee, it was learned today.

The meeting already has been called to "consider projects aimed at the reconciliation of the United States and other nations."

It was Chairman Kelinin of the all-Russia central executive committee, who revealed that the committee will shortly undertake to conciliate the powers. The committee is assuming legislative functions and is preparing to reduce the size of the red army one-half if the Genoa conference proves a success.

Legislation will be proposed to give foreign capital full guarantees. In conclusion, Kalinin expressed the ardent wish that the United States "will not be the last nation to come into Russia."

Women Rule One Time Hangout of Wyoming Bad Men

COKEVILLE, Wyo., May 11.—This city, once reputed as a hangout of "bad men," held an election yesterday and Mrs. Ethel Stoner was the successful candidate for mayor and Mrs. J. D. Noblitt and Mrs. Richard Roberts were named to the city council.

The women have announced their intention to clean the city of bootleggers and other law violators whom, they allege, habitate Cokeville.

Helps digestion —and cleans a coated tongue

Thousands of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason:

Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic jtice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive process. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh everyday before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer today.

When a Girl Marries

CHAPTER 639.

"Yes, Phoebe," I replied, gently, to the question she had asked. "I am going to Virginia's for the week-end. She is entertaining"——

But Phoebe didn't wait for explanations. With a look on her face such as I hope Neal will never see there, she cried:

"You're going to — my sister's for the week-end. And she won't even speak to me!"

I caught my breath at the brutality of the bare statement.

"Don't say anything. Don't say a word!" cried Phoebe, before I could collect myself. "I'm sure you'd like to find something to do about it. At first I hoped you would. I wanted you to be friends with Virginia and to find a way to make her see that I didn't do anything so very dreadful when I found my love—and took it. But now I'm not sure I'll ever speak to Virginia Harrison again."

"Don't say that!" I cried. "You two—and Jim—are all that's left of the Harrisons. Virginia will come to her senses before long. She must. And when she does you'll be ready to make friends with her. I know you, dear; there isn't room for bitterness or malice in your nature."

"That's very gratifying, Anne," replied Phoebe coldly. "But it's too generous. At first I was eager to have Jeannie speak to me. I was ready to let her condescend—to forgive me, as she put it. But now—I'm not sure, I tell you."

"Why not, dear? She's still your Jeannie. You know her faults—and her good points. You know how she almost broke her heart over Pat and still couldn't meet him half way for a long, bitter time. So you've no right to judge her or declare what you'll do or not do. You're the younger. You can afford to —give in.

After I said that I got frightened. Knowing the Harrison temperament, I felt I'd gone too far. And I made up my mind in the ensuing silence that I'd take whatever came calmly since I'd brought it on myself. For a time Phoebe said no word to break the silence. I didn't dare break it. Finally Phoebe spoke again in a controlled voice that astonished me.

"I've been counting a hundred, Babbsie. I'm not going to let the Harrison temper smash up beautiful things for me. Not your love, for instance. Not Neal's happiness. It's all very well to talk about the Harrison pride—it's really the Harrison temper. I've my share, but I'm going to catch it young and manage it."

"Then you're not angry with me!" I cried thinking it wise to acknowledge the precise state of affairs between us. "You're willing to listen to advice from your Mrs. Fix-it of a big sister?"

Phoebe dimpled and cuddled up to me in her best "kitten-girl" fashion.

"Yes, I'm going to listen to you, Babbsie. And I'm going to stand for anything except interference where Jeanie's concerned."

"Oh, Phoebe!" I cried, "you mustn't take that tone. I think Virginia's lonely. She has no real woman friend to count on, now that Betty is away. She and I are only on—tentative good terms. I don't know how much this week-end is going to do to put us on an intimate footing again. You see it's largely a blind for Rosa Cordova"——

"W-what?" gasped Phoebe.

"A—blind," I repeated.

Then, looking into Phoebe's wide, puzzled eyes, I determined that I owed her as much of the precise truth as I could tell without showing my jealousy or suggesting that my love for Jim could ever be shadowed by the slightest doubt. Not only would it have hurt me beyond endurance to let Phoebe stop believing in my faith in Jim—but I didn't want to risk throwing even a shadow of cynicism across her mind.

So I felt my way carefully as I began to explain:

"You see, dear, Jim doesn't know a thing about what's going on here. No word from here has reached him or will reach him—save through the letters Mrs. Cordova is going to forward for me now."

"I see," replied Phoebe, her wide eyes narrowing.

"You begin to see," I corrected, with a little love pat to soften it. "You see that Jim doesn't know of your marriage, or of any rift within the lute of the Jeanie-Phoebe Babbsie circle. But there's this—can you imagine Virginia letting Rosa Cordova get an inkling of the fact that the Harrisons are at sixes and sevens?"

"I should say I can't!" Phoebe muttered. "So that's how you come to be—admitted within the gates—on trial."

"Precisely!" I smiled. "You are a clever youngster. Sometimes I forget just how shrewd and far-seeing you are."

"Oh, I can see through—an open door. Remember that, Babbsie, in case you ever feel tempted to try to put anything over on little sis."

"I will," I said solemnly. "Now you see why I'm going to Dreamwold."

"To put up a front before the pretty visiting lady, who might turn out to be pussy cat enough to write Jim all the unpleasant news we're anxious to keep from him," laughed Phoebe.

"That's it," I said, glad that her astuteness in answering questions kept her from asking them. That gave Virginia an excuse to put her pride in her pocket and call me first."

"I never knew why you quarreled. Was it over me?" Phoebe dragged out.

"It was over my going into business," I said incisively.

The Phoebe burst out with faith as disconcerting as her previous stubbornness and hardness on the Virginia question had been:

"I'm not bitter any more, Anne. I'm not frightened either. I'm counting on you. And of course I'm also counting on the unconscious aid of Rosa Cordova."

"Phoebe!" I cried, a little frightened lest I'd done my work too well. "Don't count on—anything!"

"I'm counting on everything!" she returned serenely. "I'm counting on you to go down to Dreamwold and make Jeanie see that she owes it to her family pride and her wish to keep in Jim's good graces and to me as well, to come straight up here and congratulate me on marrying the dearest boy in the world."

"Phoebe!" I protested, astonished at the ambitious program she was mapping out. "You can't expect all that from Virginia."

"You don't know the half of it, dearie!" declared Phoebe, at once flippantly and solemnly. "I'm counting on Virginia to make all the advances—every one. You've persuaded me to yield—when she does. No one on earth can persuade me to do more."

"But Virginia won't come to you, dear; you know that," I pleaded.

"All I know is, no one can make me go to her," said Phoebe decisively.

And, staring at her grim little face, I wondered if Jim's sisters would ever again be friends.

Resources National Banks Decrease

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Resources of the national banks in the country in March amounting to $19,850,402,0000 including re-discounts, showed a decrease of $1,591,326,000 compared with February, 1921, and a decline of $93,340, compared with December, 1921, according to the latest abstract of reports of conditions issued tonight by Comptroller of the Currency Crissinge Crossinger. Total deposits of the banks for the March call amounting to $15,390,138,000 showed a decrease of $87,916,000, compared with February, but an increase of $315,336,000 compared with December. Loans and discounts include rediscounts, in March, totalled $11,282,579,000, or a decrease of $1,512,-$35,000 from February and a decline of $22,810,000 from December.

STATE CONTROL INTERFERED WITH BY FEDERAL BODY

Nebraska Receiver Superseded by United States Court.

Not only the affairs of the defunct Lion Bonding Co., but also the future handling of insurance concerns in Nebraska which may become involved in financial difficulties, are affected by the action of the United States court of appeals in taking matters out of the hands of Amos Thomas, Omaha receiver appointed under state authority, and turning them over to two Minneapolis creditors designated as federal receivers.

"This means that the Nebraska insurance bureau will not be able hereafter to take over sick insurance companies and try to rehabilitate them but will have to slap on a receivership right at the start or lose control over them," declared Chief W. B. Young of the bureau, when he heard about the federal court's order.

"It may mean, in the present instance removal of the assets to Minneapolis and liquidation in such a way that Nebraska creditors will not receive as much as they would have if the state receivership had continued.

"This decision overrules Judge Woodrough of the United States district court for Nebraska, who had held in the state's favor. The appellate court rules that a federal receivership takes precedence because the two Minneapolis creditors, A. J. Hertz and J. J. Levin, started their suit before we took steps to retain control under state laws."

Taken Over a Year Ago.

The Lion Bonding company was taken over by the state authorities in the early part of 1921. When the Minneapolis creditors undertook to get a federal receiver appointed, Attorney General Davis on behalf of the insurance bureau asked for a state receivership and secured the appointment of Amos Thomas, Omaha attorney, in that capacity.

There have been rumors that the Minneapolis men were dissatisfied with the manner in which some assets of the Lion Bonding company were being handled. It was reported to have in its possession at the time of the failure a large amount of warrants issued by different counties, cities and school districts in Nebraska.

Receiver Thomas may be called on to show how these warrants were disposed of, who got them, and how much was received for them. An unofficial report is that they were turned over to Harry Byrne, Omaha bond dealer and active republican leader in that city, who furnishes the surety bonds for most of the present state officers.

181 CIVIL WAR VETERANS LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Three Posts in Nebraska Wiped Out by Death Since Last Encampment.

A decrease of five in the number of posts, the membership in three of which was wiped out by death, a decrease in enrollment of 181, and a treasury balance of $20,934, are shown in the report of Harmon Bross, state adjutant of the Grand Army of the Republic, Nebraska department, made before the annual encampment, in session here.

The enrollment of the department on December 31, last, was 1,887, compared with 2,068 at the close of 1921, according to the report, while the number of posts as of December was 154, compared with 159 the previous year. The organization gained ninety-five members durinb the year, but lost 277, of which number 179 resulted from death.

Twenty new members were mustered in, nineteen were transferred from other states and fifty-six were reinstated, the report shows. The losses included fifty-six suspensions, twenty-four transfered and eight honorable discharges.

Six posts were dropped from the roll during the year, those at Gandy, Odell, O'Neill, Palmer, Plattsmouth and Rising City, according to the report. Three of these posts automatically became extinct through the death of remaining members. One new post was established at Omaha, absorbing three other posts, while at O'Neill a post was reinstated that had been out of existence a number of years.

Revenue into the treasury of the department during the year is shown to have totaled $5,949, with disbursements given as $3,164. Added to a previous cash balance of $15,149, the balance at the end of the year 1921 was $20,934, the report states.

The total value of property owned by the different posts is placed at $82,769, nearly $300 of which is in equipment at state headquarters.

The relief fund contains $211, according to the report.

REPLY TO NOTE.

PARIS, May 11.—The German reply to the reparations note of April 13, which has been received by the reparations commission, protests the good will of the German government, but pleads the material impossibility of imposing sixty billion marks new taxes before May 31, or complying with all the conditions laid down on March 21.

Debaters From High Schools Line Up for Championship

Thirty-three Nebraska high school debaters, representing eleven teams from all districts of the state, elected from approximately 1,000 candidates competing in the fifteenth annual contest of the Nebraska High School Debating league, will begin Thursday night the final debates for the state championship at the University of Nebraska.

The personnel of the various teams won the right to compete in the championship by virtue of victories in the district debates, upon the subject, "Resolved, That the Movement of Organized Labor for the Closed Shop Should Receive the Support of Public Opinion." The district champion teams will be prepared to argue, on a few hours' notice as lots may determine, the negative of affirmative question. Five debates will be held Thursday night, three Friday morning, one Friday night and the final contest in Memorial hall, Saturday morning.

On the basis of the new instructions, revinsed this year by Prof. M. M. Fogg, who inaugurated the debate league in 1905, thirty judges will decide the contest. Ninety-five high schools competed in the contest this yer. The closing day, Saturday, will be high school fete day.

Cathedral high school, Lincoln, won the 1921 debate, while Beatrice won from Lincoln in 1920 by a split decision.

The following teams represent the various districts:

Aurora, central district; Technical high, Omaha, eastern district; University Place, east-central district; Norfolk, north district; Superior, southern district; Beatrice, southeastern district; Holdrege, southwestern district; North Platte, western district, and Greeley, west-central district.

Some of the teams are composed of three members and others have a membership of four.

THE GOLDSTEIN CASE.

While the country is glad that President Harding has formally withdrawn the nomination of Nat Goldstein to be internal revenue collector, it cannot be said that the president has increased the public's admiration for him. On the contrary, the helplessness of Mr. Harding is emphasized and if there are any sentiments in the matter, they are sympathetic rather than laudatory. Mr. Harding is again paying the price of being a hand-picked candidate.

Nat Goldstein was on the list of Missouri republicans who had to be paid for his services and the orders came to the president to let Goldstein in when the spoils were divided. Carrying out his orders ,the president appointed Goldstein for the office of internal revenue collector for the eastern Missouri district, but the public could not forget Goldstein's record or the Chicago convention and the wave of disgust was too much for Mr. Harding and his bosses. There was only one thing to do and that was to have Goldstein request the withdrawal of his nomination. This saved the president's face.

It is recalled that when the name of Missouri was reached in the roll call in the republican presidential convention in Chicago in 1920, there was a noticeable hesitation before the vote was announced and a voice from the gallery shouted: "They're counting the cash." Later investigations proved this accusation to be virtually true. One of the Missouri delegates was Nat Goldstein, who had been paid $2,500.

This is but one of the long list of charges which have been made against Goldstein. He has been under the fire of honest statesmen almost constantly since his entry in Missouri politics and the nation-wide disgust at the presidents' attempt to "reward" him for political services was too much for a fair-minded public to endure. The bosses did not realize that there was a limit, and so authorized the president to appoint Goldstein. The fact that the nomination was withdrawn shows that there is a limit to the rottenness in politics which the people will put up with. Fortunately, the voters do ask that our government be conducted with a proper respect for honesty and fairness.

A SANE CRITICISM.

The moving picture owners of the United States are in Washington this week and their annual convention inspires the Washington Herald to lecture these owners as "guardians of a powerful medium of expression," on the weakness of the motion picture industry. The lecture is a good one. For instance, says the Herald in part:

"The moving picture world has responded too readily to the suggestions of the people. Sometimes, we believe, its leaders have taken steps in the wrong direction against their own better judgment. They have, in the first place, encouraged worship of false heroes. They have permitted a condition to obtain where such a gentleman as Mr. Douglas Fairbanks, a fairly good-looking and skillful acrobat, stirs the imaginations of men and women more than such men as Senator Lodge, Baron Kato, Rudyard Kipling, Jack Dempsey, John J. Pershing, Walter Johnson or Field Marshal von Hindenburg. They have encouraged an unhealthy trend in public thought to a point where a number of pretty but ignorant girls arouse more enthusiasm than Jane Addams, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Carrie Chapman Catt or Madame Schumann-Heink.

"The pendulum of public opinion swung so far in this direction that just now it has started the opposite way with considerable momentum. This was to be expected. It will cause real injury to the moving picture business. A few unfortunate scandals among film actors came to light, lurid with salacious details. The result has been that the whole profession is in danger of being branded as composed of drunkards, 'dope fiends,' adulterers, bigamists and murderers.

"When false heroes fall they are like Humpty-Dumpty in the nursery rhyme. Not all the king's horses nor all the king's men can put them back in public respect once more. Such a condition is unfortunate for the many upright men and women who act before the camera. The kaiser, for example, was a false hero. If the old gentleman tomorrow should plunge into the river at Doorn and rescue a child from death, but die himself in the attempt, the world would be apt to sneer rather than to admire his heroism. In his fall from grace he pulled all Germany with him and the decent elements among his former subjects are engaged in almost impossible struggle to regain respect of the world public. The same will hold true in the film industry. Woe to false heroes when their falsity is discovered."

The Herald will find a great many people who will hold with it that it should really make very little difference who the star is in the screen drama. For the most part, one actor before the camera is about as good as another. There may be two or three women or two or three men whose artistry makes them worthy of nation-wide publicity, but to have a hundred stars and to use their name, which has been popularized by press agents, as the drawing card instead of the drama itself, is to insult our intellect.

The theory of the system which has produced the "star" is probably that it assures the patron of good acting. This is especially true on the stage, but any movie patron will admit that the thing has been overdone on the screen. For example, a film dramatization of Thackery's Vanity Fair, one of the greatest works of fiction in history, would not draw enough people to pay the ushers if the part of Becky Sharp were not taken by some brainless woman who has been made famous by press agents.

The motion picture industry has just begun its great work. As a benefit to the progress of civilization, its greatest advancement lies in the future. Now it is only passing through the experimental stage and the obstacles before it are really minor ones and they may be removed by far-seeing, generous men. The truth of the matter is, we are in the midst of the transition stage.

Among the various explanations of the defeat of Senator New in the Indiana primaries is an interesting one set forth by Senator Ashurst of Arizona, who declares that New was not returned to the senate because of his vote for Senator Newberry. Senator Ashurst says that no senator who voted for the seating of Newberry will be re-elected. That is a broad statement, but it is certain that the people are not likely to forget Mr. Newberry's half million dollar seat.

When Judge Landis accepted the job as chief arbiter of disputes and conduct in the big leagues, he started something. We now have Will Huys serving in the movie industry in a similar capacity and Bernard Baruch has become a "general adviser" of the legitimate theatre realm. It is possible that the word Landis may come to mean something more in our vocabulary than the name of a man. Even now, Hays and Baruch are referred to as the "Landis" of the movies and the theatre, respectively, and it would not seem strange to hear baseball umpires spoken of as the Landis. Many of our words are so coined.

A SCHOOL BOY CONGRESSMAN.

During the debate in the house yesterday on the loan to Liberia, Representative Fordney seized an opportunity to attack Former President Wilson. He related how in 1920 he predicted that Mr. Wilson was going to change his boarding house on March 4, and, to quote him verbatim, "I said we would say to him what I have heard sung at the close of a school I attended in the backwoods:

"'Goodbye scholars, goodbye school,
Goodbye teacher, you darned old fool.'"

Aside from the question of a loan to Liberia, aside from Mr. Fordney's personal antagonism toward the former president, what can the people of the United States think of an alleged statesman who will thus conduct himself on the floor of the lower branch of congress? One would suppose that in the years which have passed since Mr. Fordney attended that backwoods school some of the crudities of youth would wear off, but apparently he is the same uncouth person he was at that time. It is not to wonder that the public's respect for congressmen is no always as high as it should be.

If Jack Dempsey wants to get in strong with the American Legion boys, he might bring Grover Cleveland Bergdoll back with him.

The eastern head-writer who wrote the headline, "Woman Fined for Keeping Still," supplied inspiration for five thousand paragraphers.

History says that thousands of years ago our ancestors ran unclothed in the forests and danced wildly. Now we have dance halls.

Comment by the Press

WALT WHITMAN SUPPRESSED.

The Hungarian government has discovered that Walt Whitman is a dangerous stuff and a Hungarian Lusk has forbidden publication. This is unfair. What is more, it is ignorant. For the Hungarian government ought to know by this time that no dangerous ideas are ever born in America. Thtye are always imported from Europe.

But on second thoughts perhaps the Hungarian government is right. Perhaps the American idea, which Whitman carried so relentlessly to its logical conclusion, has been more dangerous to autocracy of all kinds throughout the world than the most intricate theory ever concocted by Karl Marx. We are inclined to think it has been. We are inclined to think it would go hard with any form of oppression once any one takes seriously the ideas which grow as naturally out of the American soil as Kansas wheat or Walt Whitman's democracy. And we are inclined to think too that Walt Whitman rolled over chuckling in his grave as he heard the news from Hungary, and then said to himself: "At last I am taken seriously. I am rescued from the literary cliques."—New York World.

A Bit of Homely Philosophy

EVER HAVE BREAKFAST TABLE DIFFERENCES?

Having a family difference in the morning is likely to have a bad effect all day.

When friend husband reaches the office he is apt to be in a belligerent mood, and it requires little to stir him up.

If he is an employer, he is likely to antagonize the men working for him.

If an emploe, it takes but little to arouse a spirit of opposition to his employer, and it gives vent in words, or sullen, disinterested production.

Breakfast table differences are easy brought on in the morning.

The more in the family the easier to indulge in these jangles.

Every one is sleepy and taciturn, or garrulous and irresponsible in comparison with the rest of the day.

It has an effect of making husband and wife reach the table in a fighting mood every morning, whether it be an active quarrel-picking mood or an obstinate spirit of self-defense.

This causes a man to get a bad start in his work, and the woman has little interest in her household and its upkeep.

How foolish to have those breakfast table quarrels, whether between parents or children, and how can children help it when parents do not control themselves.

More Truth than Poetry

BY S.E. KISER

BLISSFUL COMPLACENCE.

I saw a rich man riding past
Beside his pretty wife;
Upon her bosom jewels gleamed,
And, judging by his look ,he seemed
To be enjoying life;
But did I envy him? Not I!
I'm luckier than he.
For one whom he has never known
Is glad, she says, to be alone
And undisturbed with me.

I daily read the names of men
Whose fame has spread afar;
They sway in councils here and there,
And many people are aware
Of what their duties are;
But I, unknown and unobserved,
Am luckier than they,
For one whose voice they never hear
Has but to speak to bring me cheer
And charm my cares away.

The decorated heroes come,
Applauded night and noon;
The princes, marshals, and the rest,
Each proud to be the nation's guest,
Their paths with roses strewn;
But I look not with jealous eyes,
Nor care a cent or sou,
For one whose ways are winsome ways
Remembers frequently to praise
The little things I do.

I waste no envy on the great;
The rich may keep their pride,
For one whose charms they have not seen
Assures me that her joy is keen
When I am at her side.
She may be spoofing, I admit,
For who can ever tell?
But, anyhow, her charm is rare;
She makes me think the world is fair,
And, therefore, all is well.

Opposes Evolution Theory.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 9.—To the Editor of The Star: The percentage of illiteracy is getting smaller year by year. More schools are built every year and more teachers are employed. We have nurses and doctors employed in our schools but law breaking and crime is constantly increasing. We have to build detention homes to keep the young criminals; the penitentiary is full, we should just expect the opposite.

Primarily, our educational institutions are expected to create better citizenship and make better government for law and order. The question now arises why have our educational institutions failed to produce healthy, loyal and honest law abiding citizens? I think our school board and regents of the university have neglected to pull out the tares the devil has sown in the wheat; I mean the teachers that believe in Darwinism, in the theory of evolution, when a child is made to believe that there is no living God, no supreme being; no law of God to recognize and obey, then conscience dies and his obligation to his fellow men dies with it; it leads the scholar into the desert where there is no way out and no sunlight; help yourself, do as you see fit; take what you can get, you must use your education so you won't be caught. If we employ atheist teachers, we will reap destruction as a people and nation. Past history plainly reveals this, there is no escape unless we turn back to God. like King David said, blessed is the people whose God is the Lord. The Bible contains the law of God and gives every body advice how to live; how and by what means he can obtain the desire of his heart; physically, financially and spiritually. It has never been questioned that the founders of our republic were believers in God and the Bible, their lives and the constitution they adopted, gives evidence to that effect.

The best men and the noblest characters that ever lived are recorded in the Bible. Paul said of this book it is the power of God unto salvation. David said it was a light for his feet, in it he found God who forgave him his sins and healed all his diseases; who redeemeth thy soul from destruction and crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercy. This book contains a prescription that will transform the wildest criminal into a loving and law abiding citizen, pleasing to God and men. The unbelievers should be sifted out from among the teachers and the Bible restored in schools.—HENRY CARTER.

In Defense of Mrs. O'Hare.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 9.—To the Editor of The Star: I feel constrained to answer you in reference to your editorial of the 6th inst. You presume to criticise a respectable mother in Israel—Mrs. O'Hare—your equal in every respect. And you presume to mould public opinion. Your yelling newsboys cause me to compare them to the scripture verse "goeth about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour." The perpetuation of the capitalist class only lies in fooling the public, or in bluffing them. You presume to judge these prisoners, I fear, without having personal acquaintence with them. Certain it is, their present treatment will not cause them to love their fellow men any better.

You have the right to cry the sale of your paper, for a measly penny or two, but a socialist has no right to open his or her head on the streets of Lincoln. Can you give a rational reason why? Do you know what the police of India are doing to the revolutionists of India? The socialists know and they are publishing it too! You are the kind of a man who would be likely to favor the supression of free speech. You might as well sit down and wait for a mountain to melt at the north pole as to try to suppress the truth. In the settlement of the coal strike, Mr. Harding is on trial as a wise and impartial executive or as a moral coward.—G. E. WELSH.

Reserve Officers Discuss Summer Military Training

Governor Samuel R. McKelvie and Col. Leroy S. Upton, chief of staff of the seventh crops area, were the guests of honor at the monthly dinner meeting of the Lancaster County Reserve Officers association at the Grand hotel, Wednesday night, attended by fifty members. Captain W. C. Schauss presided.

Colonel Upton spoke of the new military policy of the government, in which the regular army is the first line of defense, the national guard the second, and the organized reserves, now in skeleton form, but to be recruited in war time to full strength, as the third and final line of defense. The reserves conform to the units formed during the world war, and have in many cases, much of the same officer personnel.

He explained the policy in regard to summer training camps for the reservists. Six hundred and fifty officers will be retained at Camp Des Moines from July 16 to 30, and thirty-five may attend the citizens' military training camp during August. Both of these camps are dependent on congress passing the necessary appropriations.

Governor McKelvie spoke of the confidence the people of the state have in the military organizations and referred especially to the good record made at Nebraska City by the national guard. Major Cole of Omaha, adjutant of the eighty-ninth reserve division, talked briefly. The university cadet review was attended by Col. Upton and other officers during the afternoon.

LIONS ENTERTAIN CIVIL WAR VETS

Regular Army Feed and Sham Battle Features of Antelope Park Event.

More than 300 G. A. R., veterans were entertained at 5 p. m., Wednesday at Antelope park by the Lincoln Lions club, which provided a regular army feed for the aged veterans, and staged a sham battle.

The veterans lined up in regular army fashion for their chow, each man being provided with a wooden plate. Bread, butter and coffee were also served. Members of the Lions club acted as kitchen police.

A movie man was on the scene and took pictures of the veterans being fed, and also took some closeups of the G. A. R. fife and drum corps in action. Later some movies were taken of the surrender of the "rebel" army, and the appearance of Abe Lincoln.

Missouri meerschaum pipes and tobacco were distributed among the veterans.

O. C. Bell, 831 D street, told the members of the Lions club, on behalf of the G. A. R., veterans, how much the entertainment was appreciated. Guy Reed responded for the Lions, and declared that the club was glad it could do something to make the G. A. R., convention as complete and successful as possible.

The veterans were transported to and from the park in automobiles dedicated for the use, by citizens of Lincoln.

Disastrous Fire in Southern City

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 11.—Hundreds of delegates and visitors to the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, left their beds last night to watch the "Old City Hall" building burn to the ground, with an estimated loss of $75,000.

For a time the entire heart of the business district was threatened. The plant of the Sentinel-Record, a morning newspaper, was in the destroyed building.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.

MINERVA'S MAIL

Take Your Troubles to Minerva

History Repeats Itself.

Dear Minerva: The letter from "Mother of Three" in Sunday's paper expresses my sentiments exactly. It, indeed, does one's heart good to hear from those who are capable of thinking for themselves and who possess enough backbone to stand up for their rights and are not afraid to say that their life is their own. 'Tis a pity we have not more of that type. I do not think that "Fatty" Arbuckle's pictures should be withheld from the public. That we are carrying the censorship idea to extremes goes without saying. The public should be the censor, not one man or any board or clique of three or four men, or women either for that matter. If the public does not want to see the Arbuckle pictures it will remain away, therefore, they will prove unprofitable and will be withdrawn. If, upon the other hand the public wants to see his pictures and liberally patronizes them, then it should have what it wants. The idea of the few dictating to the many smacks too much of autocracy. It is decidedly un-American. We fought autocracy upon the battlefields of Europe and supposed we had finished it only to find the monster raising its hideous head in a hundred places here at home.

I never care for Charle Chaplin and some other laugh provokers of the movie world. I always considered Charlie very silly but Arbuckle was really funny and as far as his pictures are concerned, they never contained anything objectionable. I hold no brief for Mr. Arbuckle personally, but the fact remains he made millions laugh and caused those millions to come out of the theatre in a happier frame of mind and with better outlook upon life than they had when they entered it and in that respect at least he was useful and his good work should not be permitted to cease.

We do not refuse to read the beautiful poems of Robert Burns because Burns was a degenerate nor do we deny a place in our libraries to the works of Shakespeare, Dante, Poe and others simply because the authors were anything but paragons of virtue. Some of our stage celebrities and grand opera stars have figured prominently in various sensational escapades but we do not refuse to see or hear them or demand that they renounce their career and go into seclusion simply because they may have done something we do not approve of. If they be of good character, naturally, we admire them the more, but I for one, do not demand that my entertainers be reformers. Some of the world's masterpieces of architecture were conceived by men whose private life was far from being admirable but we hardly feel like wrecking the buildings on that account. We should be broad enough to recognize and appreciate the work itself regardless of our personal opinions of its creator.

History credits the ancient Romans with being particularly able in imposing their form of government upon radically dissimilar peoples, in quickly bringing order out of chaos and establishing a smoothly running state in places far from the mother country, but while busily engaged in conquests and carrying their propaganda far afield, their empire at home crumbled and fell to pieces.

We crossed the sea carrying the torch of liberty and the light of democracy into benighted Europe only to find upon our return that the torch was burning pretty low and the light was decidedly dim at home for ever since the war started we have been losing our liberties in a constantly increasing volume and the clamour of the reformers is ever "restrictions and more restrictions." Are we to follow in the foolish footsteps of Rome and pay the penalty that Rome paid or will we "come out of it," regain our former sanity and self-respect and win back some of the good things we have lost? Here's hoping that the worm turns soon.

'Tis said that history repeats itself and that life runs in cycles. Back in old Salem, Massachusetts our ancestors burned witches at the stake but one day the bubble burst, the nightmare ended. We do not burn people at the stake today (except in the south) we are too highly educated for that, so we have devised various refined and lingering tortures such as confiscation of property, the blacklist, etc., and today our penal institutions are full and overflowing despite all the frantic efforts of the reformers to save the world, but the pitiful part of it all is the fact that perhaps a least half of the unfortunates languishing in our jails are there for doing something that was not a crime less than five years ago. To lead a horse to water is bout the easiest thing in the world to do, but to make said horse drink if he doesn't want to is about the hardest. Some day that simple fact may even filter through the thick skulls of the average reformer and he will learn that writing statutes is one thing and changing human nature is quite another, and then the unexpected may happen; the reformers may reform themselves, but until that happy day dawns please remember that every noisy, ranting upstart that springs into the limelight is not necessarily a great leader nor is every religious fantatic that cries from the house tops, chatters upon the street corners or thunders from the pulpit, for that matter, a great reformer in the true sense of the word.—MR. E. X.

Hospitality Not Returned.

Dear Minerva: For the past four years, relatives of my husband have been coming annually to visit us. They are both college graduates who live on a farm and we have always entertained them. I might say, most thoroughly. Before their visits, which were never as a result of direct or timed invitations, we have always planned a routine of activities designed to particularly please them. We have each year spent so much money on their entertainment that we have had to practice severe economy later. We have given parties for the children, taken the elders to expensive places to dine and to good shows, entertained for them in our home, always served the best of dinners, and hired extra help in the home for them while they were here so we could give them more time and more comfort to them. Maybe we were foolish, but my husband had thought a great deal of them and thought this annual treat after their dull life on the farm was due them. We had no regrets.

However last summer, my husband wrote and suggested he would enjoy taking our family to their farm for a vacation and they answered that they were sorry but it was unavoidable nd that the wife's people were going to spend the entire summer with them, that their room was limited, etc. We felt rather chilled by the response, but felt they could not help it. Last winter we again entertained them, and this spring my little boy had a severe attack of grippe and suffered from such bad after effects that the doctor had us take him out of school and recommended the country for him. So my husband again wrote these relatives of his. We received a letter from them soon but not a word was mentioned of our suggestion. My husband was rather riled by this time so wrote again, saying he feared his suggestion was not understood. And again we received a letter in which the crops were described, the children's school and health discussed but not a word said regarding our desire to take our small son out on their farm for a visit. Now what would you do in such a case?—MRS. N. B.

A. I think I would leave this last letter unanswered. Then if these relatives do not see fit to invite you to their home during the summer months and yet find an excuse to visit you next fall or winter, I would make no special effort to entertain them, just let them seek their own amusement. Do not spend any extra on them, merely treat them politely as you would treat any guest, however unwelcome, in your home. And omit any "come again" excess politeness.

"Main Street" Customs.

Dear Minerva: We have recently moved into this small town and I am anxious to make friends but not just sure what I should do. We attended a church social the other day, and I wonder if I should have asked those persons that we met and talked to to come and see us. I didn't know whether I would appear too anxious or if such an invitation was expected of me. Until now I have lived in Lincoln, where I was born and had so very many friends and acquaintances that I did not have to think about getting acquainted so this is all new to me. —YOUNG WIFE.

A. Speaking with strict reference to social etiquet as it is written invitations to call were not in order either from you or from the ladies you met at the social. However in many communities, and particularly in a small community such as yours is, a more informal code of manners is in usage and a "come and see me" invitation is always in order. Since you are a newcomer you need not worry, however over a possible violation of local rules. Just be as cordial and approachable as possible, keep your eyes open for customs which you should know, and "Main Street" will soon warm up to you.

POPE RECEIVES O'HERNE.

ROME, May 11.—Monsignor O'Herne, rector of the American college, was received in audience today by Pope Pius XI.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and grease-less), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Don't Overlook These New and Important Uses for Kingsford's Corn Starch. Helps You to Save Money

IT is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using quarter cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to three-quarter cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake.

If your recipe calls for four eggs to one quart of milk, use three eggs, and for the egg omitted use half tablespoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch.

For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessert spoonful of Kingsford's instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour.

For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with one-fourth cup of Kingsford's and three-fourths cup wheat flour.

FREE: Ask your grocer or write Corn Products Sales Co., 8th & Jackson St., Omaha, Neb., for beautiful folder of the new Kingsford Corn Starch recipes.

LAF-A-LOT CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL MOTHER'S BANQUET.

One of the most attractive parties of the Laf-a-Lot club was given on Wednesday evening at the Lincolnshire, when the members of the club held their annual Mother's banquet wit hthe mothers of the girls as the guests.

Covers for twenty-eight were arranged at one large table made attractive with a color motif of lavender and yellow. A mound of lilacs surrounded by yellow tapers in crystal holders, formed the base for the May pole which was used for centerpiece. At either end was a huge basket of the lavender blossoms tied with large fluffy bows of lavender and yellow tulle. Lavender nut cups tied with yellow tulle, and the place cards bearing a suggestion of Mothers Day, were at each place.

A Toast to Mothers, Miss Amy Reed.

A group of three songs:

"Afternoon," Cox.

"Just You," Burleigh.

"Mother," Austin Bacon, a Lincoln boy who wrote both words and music, Mrs. Helen Turley.

For an encore, Mrs. Turley gave "A Little Coon's Prayer."

Group of two songs:

"The Morning Wind," Branscombe.

NEBRASKA HIGH SCHOOL DEBATERS HERE FOR FINAL

Championship to Be Determined in Series of Elimination Contests.

New Instructions for Judging Issued by President M. M. Fogg.

On the basis of new instructions to the judges will the ten contests of the fifteenth state debate of the Nebraska high school Debating league, that opens with five debates Thursday evening, be decided. These instructions, formulated by Porf. M. M. Fogg president, by authority of the league, are designed to put still greater emphasis upon substance (thinking—analysis, use of evidence, rebuttal) than form. The thirty judges will vote under the following instructions:

Instructions to Judges

"I. The award shall be made out on the merits of the question (that is, not on which side is inherently the stronger, which side the judge happens to believe in,) but on the merits of the debating—on the selection, use, and presentation of material (that is, which team has made the more of its opportunities as debaters—has done the more effective debating.)

"II. In deciding which team has done the more effective debating, the judge shall consider both thought and form; but more weight shall be given to substance than to form (rhetorical style and speaking). If one team excelles in substance and the other to and equal degree in presentation, the decision shall go to the former team.

"A. In estimating the substance—the thinking—attention will, of course, be given to: (1) knowledge of the question and anatysis: (2) weighing of testimonial evidence as to its competency and fairness; (3) reasoning—drawing inferences, (4) clearness of structure; (6) effectiveness in the rebuttal arguments, on which special emphasis is to be laid.

"B. In estimating the form, attention is to be given to: (1) accuracy of English; (2) clearness, interest and good taste of rhetorical style; (3) effectiveness (clearness, earnestness, directness, good taste, ease) of the speaking.

"(A more polished form may be secured, of course, by simply presenting a verbally memorized argument; but that is not debating; that fails to stress what the league wishes especially to premium—ability in give-and-take discussion, in grappling on the spot wit han opposing case, in meeting emergencies as they arise.)

"III. The judges, who shall sit apart during the debate, shall vote without consultation (with consultation, if the contesting schools so decide) "Affirmative" or "Negative." Each judge shall sign and seal his vote. The presiding officer shall open the votes and announce the decision."

Spying on the case of a team that a school may meet is prohibited under penalty of exclusion from the tournament. The following article of the league constitution governs the state debate as well as district debates, according to bulletin announcement by Prof. Fogg Thursday morning:

"It shall be considered dishonorable for a school to procure the arguments of a debater or team with whom it may compete that year. Proof that this has been done shall bar the school from further participation in the league debates of the year."

Five Debates Thursday.

The five debates Thursday evening, at 7:45, will be as follows, the school named first maintaining the affirmative of the proposition "The Movement of Organized Labor for the Closed Shop Should Receive the Support of Public Opinion:"

PROCLAIMS MAY 14 AS MOTHERS' DAY

McKelvie Calls on Citizens to Properly Observe Next Sunday.

Governor Says it Is Recognition Due Mothers, for Sacrificial Service.

Governor McKelvie has issued the following proclamation calling for observance of next Sunday as Mothers' day:

"It is a most worthy custom, that of setting aside a day upon which to especially honor and memorialize american mothers. Perhaps the idea found its inception in a desire to prompt us, lest we forget, to honor and revere the one, who, among all, has rendered to each of us the ultimate in sacrificial service. But we may also properly regard the day in its relation to our national purposes and ideals. Service to country is the watchword by which genuine patriotism may be properly measured. Who, then, is entitled to a finer recognition or greater esteem than the American mother?

"In recognition of the everlasting love and esteem in which every American citizen holds his mother, and mindful of the unbounded service that has been rendered America by the women of the nation, I am privileged to designate Sunday, May 14 as Mothers' day, to be observed in proper and fitting manner by every citizen and every institution in the state of Nebraska."

PACIFISTS ARE SCORED BY GEN. R. W. M'BRIDE

National Vice-Commander of G. A. R. Says There Are Worse Things Than War.

Declares Struggle of '61 Was Between Nation and Its Enemies.

A smashing attack on all pacifists and at the tendency to refer to the Civil war as a struggle for mastery between groups and states was delivered at the second big gathering of the G. A. R. encampment at the city auditorium Wednesday night by Judge Robert W. McBride of Indianapolis, national senior vice commander.

"There are those who cannot distinguish between lovers of peace and pacifists," said General McBride. "I believe every member of the Grand Army is a lover of peace. The experiences they went through showed them exactly what war is. But they hold that there are worse things than war. The national honor must be maintained at any cost."

The speaker asserted that the men who answered Lincoln's call in '61 saved not only the country but the whole world. They proved that a government of, for and by the people could successfully endure, as idea that have lessened the world until today almost all governments are responsive to the will of the people.

The increasing tendency to speak of the war as a mere struggle between the states was indignantly condemned by the union leader. An address by Calvin Coolidge, vice president of the United States, at the dedicating of the Grant memorial in Washington April 27, in which he spoke of Grant as the northern leader and Lee as the southern leader, was resented by General McBride. He disliked to criticize, he said and respected and honored Mr. Coolidge, but this wrong impression must not be allowed to go unchallenged.

Must Maintain Truth.

"We can afford to make concessions to the southern people," he said, "but not at the expense of the truth. We hold no feeling against them. We admire their gallantry and courage. They were great men and great soldiers. We are willing to admit that while they were wrong they were conscientious in their belief. Their sons have fought side by side with ours in later wars. But the United States is today a great nation only because they were defeated.

"It was not a war between states, it was a war between the United States and its enemies, led by men who had sworn allegiance to our country. In his last public speech, Lincoln characterized it as a rebellion."

The G. A. R. leader paid his respects to the American legion and warned the younger veterans, now about to take over the responsibilities of their older comrades, of certain dangers to avoid. "It is not enough that you were willing to die for your country," he told the world war veterans. "You must be willing to live for it, guided by the spirit of the constitution."

In conclusion General McBride said: "May the United States never fail in its duty as a member of the family of nations. But may the time never come when our country is dictated to by any other nation or groups of nations." He was cheered repeatedly during his address.

Clifford Ireland, Illinois congressman and commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans, followed General McBride. He eulogized Lincoln as the country's greatest man, and echoed the previous speaker in condemning any lessening of the importance of the Civil war. The success of the nation for the past fifty years has rested almost wholly on the shoulders of the G. A. R. he said. They came home in '65 not to quit fighting but to continue fighting for their country's welfare.

Endorses Gen. McBride's Stand.

A pacifist he characterized as of too low moral character to describe, but gave great credit to the real lovers of peace. He endorsed the general's remarks about the south's gallantry and leadership, but could not but recall that its leaders won their fame in striving against the nation they had sworn to support.

Short talks were made by Mrs. Ida S. McBride, a past national president of the Woman's Relief corps, by Mrs. Elliott of Des Moines, national vice president of the Daughters of Veterans, and by Mrs. Margaret Stephens of Washington, president of the Sons of Veterans auxiliary, who Wednesday afternoon instituted the Nebraska division of that order.

Col. J. H. Presson presided at the meeting and at the grand camp fire which preceded it. The auditorium was decorated with flags, pictures of famous leaders and baskets of flowers, while on the stage was piles of logs to represent the old-time army camp. The G. A. R. quartet, W. J. Blystone, O. C. Bell, R. N. Blanchard and J. H. McBride, led the old soldiers in singing the favorite songs of '61. President Benjamin F. Bailey of the Chamber of Commerce invited the veterans back to Lincoln for their next encampment. At the close of the meeting, Colonel Presson read a letter written in 1882 to J. H. McClay, from General W. T. Sherman, expressing his regret at not being able to attend the Nebraska encampment.

King Denounces Governor Reily Of Porto Rico

WASHINGTON, May 11. — Demanding his removal by President Harding, Senator King, democrat, of Utah, today denounced W. Mont Reily, governor of Porto Rico in the senate as "wholly unfit to discharge the duties of his high office."

King's denunciation of Reily followed the Goldstein debate and he began by declaring a few more Missourians need the light of publicity.

"When talking about Missourians, I just spoke of the governor of Porto Rico," King said. "He went there wholly unfit to discharge the duties of his high office. He ought to be removed or he ought to resign. The protest of the people of Porto Rico should be heard by the president and this incompetent official removed."

Denies Charges Made by Magazine

WASHINGTON, May 1. — The state department entered a full and categorical denial today of charges made by the Nation, a New York magazine that the United States sought to "trade" its recognition of Mexica for special privileges in that country for American interests.

Secretary of State Hughes will not make formal reply to a list of ten specific questions put to him in an open letter by the editors of the magazine, he said today, but the allegations made in the questionnaire were officially characterizzed as "absurd" and "untrue."

CROP VALUES ARE REDUCED TO HALF

Products of Farmer Show Big Decline Since Peak Date.

Crop Prices Fall More Rapidly Than Those of Live Stock.

Wealth value produced by the farmers of the United States for the year 1921 amounted to twelve and one-third billion dollars, according to the report of the bureau of crop estimates of the United States department of agriculture, just received by the Nebraska state department of agriculture. This is about half the value of crops raised in 1919, when prices were at the peak. The prices of crops have decreased more rapidly than those of live stock and live stock products, it is stated.

The total value of all crops in 1919 was $15,443,000,000; in 1920, $10,909,000,000; in 1921, $7,028,000,000. The total estimated value of all animals raised and animal products in 1919 was $8,361,000,000; in 1920, $7,354,000,000 and in 1921, $5,339,000,000.

Four crops produced 56.3 per cent of the value of all crops in 1919. These were corn, 1 8.5 per cent; hay and forage 16.6; cotton 10.7 per cent and wheat 10.5. The total value of dairy products amounted to 15.1 per cent of the total value of all animal products; animals raised, 36.3 per cent and poultry and eggs 17.7 per cent.

In 1914 the value of all crops had increased to 111.8 per cent of the 1909 value while the value of animals and animal products increased to 123.2 per cent of the 1909 value. When the prices were at their peak in 1919, the value of crops reached 281.1 per cent and the value of animals and of animal products reached 272.3 per cent of the 1909 value of all farm products. In 1921 the value of crops had decreased to 128.1 per cent and the value of animals and animal products had decreased to 173.9 per cent of the total value of all the crops in 1909. This shows that the value of crops increased more rapidly from 1914 to 1919 than the value of animals and of animal products and decreased more rapidly during the following two years.

WEATHER PROVES HELP TO FARMERS

Work During the Week Ending May 9 Progresses Rapidly.

Government Report Shows Soil Mostly in Good Condition.

The weather in Nebraska during the week ending May 9 was generally warm and favorable for farm work, and corn planting progressed rapidly, according to the following report by the United States department of agriculture weather bureau:

"The week was warm, averaging 4 degrees above normal, with ample sunshine and general but mostly light showers. In most of the state the rainfall was less than one-quarter inch, but in some counties near the Missouri river and in the eastern portion of the Platte valley it exceeded one-half inch.

"The weather was favorable for farm work and corn planting was in progress quite generally. In some southern counties considerable corn has been planted. The soil is mostly in good condition but in some places it is rather dry. Winter wheat has continued to grow well but more rain would be beneficial. Oats is up nicely but needs rain generally. Sugar beet planting is well advanced. Fruit is in unusually promising condition. Apple and cherry trees have blossomed heavily and are setting full of fruit.

MRS. HATFIELD SABINA, OHIO

In Pitiable Condition When She Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sabina, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and irregularity. I was weak and nervous and could hardly stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal. I was this way for about a year and had tried several medicines and had a physician, but to no avail. My sister was taking your medicine and finally induced me to try it. I now feel fine and can do my housework without any trouble at all. You can use this letter for the sake of others if you wish." — Mrs. WELDON G. HATFIELD, R. R. 3, Sabina, Ohio.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so weak and nervous that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken when you first notice such symptoms as nervousness, backache, weakness and irregularity. It will help you and prevent more serious trouble.

NO COMPLAINT AGAINST DUDLEY

Lincoln Man Whose Car Killed C. C. Wolf Confers With Officials.

Victim Hit When Driver Pulled to Side of Road to Avoid Collision.

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., May 11.—J. E. Dudley of Lincoln, driver of the car which injured C. C. Wolf Sunday evening on the Cornhusker highway north of Beatrice so badly that he died Tuesday morning, came to this city Wednesday afternoon and was in conference with County Attorney Vasey and Sheriff Emery relative to the accident. The attorney stated that no action would be taken for the present against Dudley, who was returning to Lincoln with the Havelock ball players from Fairbury Sunday when Mr. Wolf was run down.

Mr. Wolf had turned to the right of the road to repair his car, and fearing a collision with an approaching car from the north, Dudley turned to the east and attempted to drive around the Wolf machine, when he struck Mr. Wolf, hurling him twenty-five feet. He sustained a broken hip, internal injuries and suffered from concussion of the brain.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Congregational church at Cortland, with burial in the Cortland cemetery.

NORTON TALKS ON FARMER PROBLEM

Says Industry Cannot Prosper Under Existing Conditions.

(Special to The Star.)

DAVID CITY, Neb., May 11.—J. M. Norton, of Polk, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, spoke before the David City Commercial club Wednesday at its noon-day luncheon. His subject was "American Agriculture." Mr. Norton contended that recent experiences of American agriculture present a real American problem, one that affects not only the fame, but also the people as a whole; that not until the American farmer is put back on his feet, can industry as a whole prosper.

Mr. Norton stressed the point that the farmer is the only one engaged in an important productive industry who has practically nothing to say as to the price that he is to receive for his product, and for that reason the farmer is insisting that he is entitled to a better system of marketing and distribution. He also discussed briefly transportation, taxation and legislation—all from the farmers' viewpoint. In this connection he recounted the purposes and accomplishments of the farm-bloc congress.

Mrs. Martha Heth, Lincoln Pioneer Is Dead at Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., May 11. — Mrs. Martha Heth, 81, Nebraska pioneer, died Wednesday at Mrs. Rose Hoffman's sanitarium, where she had been for four months. She suffered a stroke of paralysis two weeks ago.

Since she came to Omaha in 1889 from Lincoln, Mrs. Heth had been active in church, social and club work here. She is survived by one son, Stockton Heth, treasurer of the Nicholas Oil corporation. The funeral will be held Friday at the home of Mrs. Howard Baldrige at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Mrs. Heth came to Nebraska in 1860 from Richmond, Ky., where she was born and reared. She came here as the bride of John Heth in command of Fort Kearney. Her husband was post trader. From Fort Kearney, the Heths moved to Nebraska City in 1866 and then to Lincoln and in 1880 they came to Omaha.

Husband Puts Out Fire Threatening His Invalid Wife

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., May 11.—The opportune arrival of her husband in her room at a critical moment, saved Mrs. Swope of Blue Springs from being burned to death Tuesday night. An oil stove, which was being used in the room where Mrs. Swope has been a helpless invalid for six years, accidentally overturned. The flames quickly communicated with the bed clothes and carpet, and the terror-stricken woman was unable to move a limb to help herself. She screamed for help and her husband who had just arrived from down town rushed into the room and extinguished the flames before much damage resulted.

Finding of Mash Brings Trouble to Two Alliance Men

(Special to The Star.)

ALLIANCE, Neb., May 11.—Clay Seagle and Alvin Roach both of Alliance, were arrested by Morrill county authorities following the finding of five barrels of mash in a cave on land owned by Roach's mother, 14 miles southwest of Alliance, just over the line in Morrill county. They were taken to jail at Bridgeport. Officers believe that a still which is said to have been in operation in that vicinity recently was destroyed a short time before the raid. The men will be brought to Alliance and arranged before United States Commissioner L. A. Berry, on a charge of having mash illegally in their possession.

AUBURN JEWELER VICTIM OF RADIO AGENCY SWINDLE

"Con" Men Find New Field Among Enthusiasts Over Wireless Telephony.

Smooth Talker Gets $350 at Auburn and $250 at Tecumseh Sheriff Told.

AUBURN, Neb., May 11.—Auburn radio enthusiasts were thrilled with the announcement a few days ago that an agency for radio sets had been purchased by F. M. Merrick, local optometrist and jeweler, and that soon a shipment of radio stations—enough so that all might hear the ether concerts—would arrive.

But radio activity has taken a slump since then.

A suave stranger who knew all about things radio dropped into the Merrick store and offered the local man the "exclusive agency" for his concern, "a Kansas City organization maintaining a three-story factory and a retail store." He persuaded the jeweler by the force of his radio argument to part with a certified check for $100 and three notes totaling $250, due in four months.

Four radio machines for immediate sale and the agency were to be Merrick's today, when they were to arrive C. O. D., $150.

But Merrick did not receive the apparatus.

Sheriff Notified.

It was late Wednesday when Merrick appealed to Sheriff C. H. Davis. Sheriff Davis offered little consolation, telling Merrick that the same game had been worked successfully at Tecumseh, where a few days ago, a radio retailer had paid $250 in cash for the agency and machines.

"I guess I was ripe," was Merrick's only comment.

Merrick has been in business here twenty years. Only last week his careful business methods resulted in landing an alleged check artist in the county jail. But he did want to sell radio sets.

Members of police forces in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kas., and other midwestern cities after a week's search have reported that they have been unable to find any such radio company, nor any concern selling radio apparatus on terms such as those made to Merrick.

Allen Claims to End Rheumatism

ALLENRHU relieves at once. One bottle—a full pint—will show you the way to complete recovery or your druggist will gladly return your money.

Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a week.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Congress Avenue, Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of ALLENRHU, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu shows immediate results, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee one full pint bottle in every instance. CHICAGO ROUSED TO WHITE HEAT OVER KILLINGS

All Agencies Unite in Effort to Stamp Out Gunmen and Thugs.

200 Suspects Arrested in Connection With Death of Policemen.

(International News Service.)

CHICAGO, May 11.—Citizens, civic organizations and the police of Chicago united today in a grim campaign to bring to the gallows the slayers of two policemen, who were killed Tuesday night in a battle with thugs who were apprehended bombing buildings.

The bombings were attributed to activities of certain labor unions opposed to the terms of the Landis wage award to unions in the building trades industry.

Rewards totalling $60,000 have been offered for the apprehension of the slayers. It was expected that additional rewards would bring the total to $75,000.

More than 200 suspects, including many prominent labor leaders, are in cells held pending the outcome of investigations that have been launched. Three of the suspects have been tentatively identified as occupants of the murder car from which the fleeing bombers shot down pursuing policemen.

The grand jury was being in session to hear evidence and to return indictments if evidence warrants. Officials of the Chicago crime commission were planning a vigorous fight to prevent release of suspects held until all evidence in the case has been thoroughly sifted.

The three suspects who are believed to have been passengers in the death car are Max Glass, a member of the glaziers' union; John Lafferty, well known to the police, and Isadore Braverman, a suspected bomber.

Police who engaged in the battle with the fleeing bombers believe these three were their adversaries. They will scan the faces of other suspects today in an effort to identify the fourth occupant of the car.

Although not involved in the actual slaying of the policemen, charges of inciting riot may be lodged against several prominent labor leaders if evidence is found to connect them with the campaign of terror alleged to have been instigated to prevent enforcement of the Landis wage award.

Practically every crime prevention and law enforcement agency in the city is aiding the authorities in the fight. Heads of these organizations have made it plain that it is not a fight between capital and labor, but a drive to stamp out the activities of thugs and gunmen.

Verdict Against Miss Yockel in Action Over $5

Miss Anna E. Yockel must pay $12.50 and about $25 court costs before she can get back her typewriter from the Underwood Typewriter company, according to a verdict returned by the jury in the district court trial of the typewriter company's suit against Miss Yockel over possession of the disputed typewriter which Miss Yockel purchased from the Underwood company. Miss Yockel alleged she owed a balance of only $7.50 on the typewriter, while the company alleged she owed $12.50. The case was tried twice before a verdict was reached. District court officials estimated the two trials cost nearly $500.

HARD BOILED SHIP CREW MAKES LIFE BURDEN ON BOAT

Skipper Has Hands Full Trying to Keep Bunch Within Bounds.

Destroyer Called to Assistance Before Men Finally Brought Under Control.

(Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 11.—Capt. John Bergsten, a two fisted skipper, warped the shipping board steamer Eastern Ocean alongside her pier yesterday with the pithy remark that he had completed one of the toughest voyages in his life.

Contributing to the toughness was a series of fights which rose to a full fledged mutiny, requiring the assistance of a United States destroyer at Novorossysk before it could be quelled, according to the captain's story.

Also jotted down in the log was a collision at sea with a submerged object that nearly spelled the ship's doom, and a forced landing on the shores of the Black sea, whence the Eastern Ocean had gone with 7,100 tons of wheat seed for starving Russians.

By way of a finale customs men today found thirty bottles of rum aboard the ship and asked the captain some rather pointed questions. They completely exonerated him after he had told this story:

The Eastern Ocean put out from Philadelphia in January with a crew of fronts. This crew, the captain said, recruited along Philadelphia waterfront turned out to be an old-fashioned 'hard-boiled' outfit such as seldom sails the seas now days.

Two days out the first fight started.

Cooks and stewards staged it in a ring made by their cronies. The captain overlooked it.

For the next three days, the battling continued steadily. It could not be overlooked. Twice the captain, a six footer, weighing 250 pounds, said he had been compelled to break into the ring and "beat up" the combatants.

Stage Knife Duel.

On the fifth day, two cooks staged a knife duel and went to the hospital. Two stewards picked up the duel where the others had left off and they too were laid up for repairs. Then the four sick men started to fight among themselves.

For seven days the fighting was halted because all hands were compelled to fight nature. The Eastern Ocean had run into a storm. At its height she struck something beneath the waves and shipwreck loomed. With automatic in hand, Captain Berksten kept his ugly crew barring, although several times some of them tried to man boats and go over the side.

Finally thirteen days out of Philadelphia Captain Bergsten beached his steamer near Novorossysk, threw 2,000 tons of wheat overboard and lightened ship by loading the rest into smaller vessels he had called to his aid.

Steaming out of Novorossysk, however, the real mutiny began. Then the chief engineer the captain said demanded salvage for saving the ship and the crew backed him up.

"My officers and myself fired revolvers over the heads of the men several times," said the captain, "and kept them at bay. In the harbor was a United States destroyer and I finally asked them for help.

"They sent forty men and officers aboard. There was a short but vicious fight, the chief engineer was put into irons and taken ashore and the men were sent to quarters.

"It was then I learned two men had brought rum aboard. They were members of a notorious Philadelphia waterfront gang and did nothing but fight. We went to Constantinople to load before returning home."

Captain Bergsten on docking today, learned that two cooks, missing when he left Constantinople, had been arrested there on a charge of murdering two British soldiers.

Bobbed Hair Is Taboo in Schools at Poughkeepsie

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 11—The teacher who wears bobbed hair is ruled out of Poughkeepsie Kingston, Newburg, Beacon, Mechanicsville, Middletown, Goshen and Peekskill by unanimous vote of the school superintendents of these cities in official conference here today.

"We cannot tell her how to dress her hair, but we don't have to give her a job," was the opinion of the Hudson Valley school superintendents.

They voiced opinion that the teacher who goes in for fads in dress is not the person to teach common sense and good judgment to the children.

Loan by the United States of $5,000,000 to the republic of Liberia was authorized in a resolution passed by the house.

GROCERY STORE IS HIT BY FIRE

Chief Steele Believes Rats May Have Been Responsible for Blaze.

Fire about 9 p. m. Wednesday at the Anderson Grocery company, 245 South Eleventh street, caused damage estimated at $1,000 by Fire Chief Steele. About half of the loss was caused by fire and smoke.

The fire started on the balcony in the rear of the store from some unknown cause. It is believed by the fire chief that perhaps rats might have been responsible for the blaze.

When the fire department arrived, the fire had made considerable headway and was eating into the ceiling in the rear of the store. When the firemen entered the premises, the dense smoke hindered their work very much. The smoke also caused the people living in the rooms above the grocery to flee to safety.

According to C. E. Anderson, the manager of the store, the loss is covered by insurance. A large crowd gathered to watch the blaze.

(International News Service.)

PARIS, May 11. Fashionable Franco-American society thronged the historic Madeline church at noon today for the wedding of Miss Sally Beecher, niece of former American Ambassador Hugh Wallace, and Count Jean Bertrand de Luppe, a war hero.

It was a most brilliant social event and came as the climax to the Parisian social season before the departure of the notables for various watering places.

Witnesses were former Ambassador Wallace, Lord Derby, former British ambassador to France, and the Marquis d'Ollamson.

The bride wore a white satin Worth creation and a long lace veil that had been worn at the altar by her maternal grandmother.

Members of both families formed the procession, the women being noted for the beauty of their gowns. Afterward a small reception was held at the Wallace home, to which only intimate friends of the families were invited. The gifts, including the beautiful jewels presented to the bride by the bridegroom, were on view.

The bride and bridegroom will spend their honeymoon on an automobile tour.

Make Remarkable Offer to Any Person in Lincoln Who Is Weak, Sick, Nervous Or Run-Down.

It is Now Possible for You to Come to This Store, Buy a Regular $1.10 Package of Nuxated Iron for $1.00, Use It for Two Weeks, and If at the End of That Time You Have Not Received All, and Even Greater Benefits Than You Expect, Simply Bring the Wrapper Back to Harley's Drug Store, and We Will Cheerfully Hand You Back Your Money.

Lincoln people may well ask how we can afford to make this remarkable "Satisfaction or Money Back" offer. Medical examinations by physicians all over the country show that an amazing number of people lack 100% iron in their blood. At a recent conference, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out Door Department), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said, "Without iron, the blood becomes weak, thin, pale and watery. In many people this so seriously weakens their vital organs as to lead them to believe that they have heart or stomach trouble, kidney disease, nerve force exhaustion or some other serious ailment. I have had people come to me thinking they had heart trouble, because they often had pains and palpitation of the heart, sudden dizziness, faintness or spots before the eyes. In a great many of these cases, the moment iron was supplied, all of these symptoms disappeared." We make this offer because Genuine Nuxated Iron contains true organic iron like the iron in your blood. So many people are deficient in iron who would surely be benefited by this remarkable remedy, that we recommend that you come right to Harley's Drug Store and get your bottle of Nuxated Iron. Use it for two weeks, and note the improvement in your own case in strength, energy and endurance. If you are not more than surprised at the results, just bring back the wrapper and we will promptly refund your money without question.—Advertisement.

LID OFF FRIDAY IN NEBRASKA LEAGUE

Race in State Loop to Start at Beatrice, Norfolk and Grand Island.

OPENING DAY PROGRAM IN NEBRASKA LEAGUE

Lincoln at Norfolk.
Hastings at Grand Island.
Fairbury at Beatrice.

Baseball in the Nebraska State league is to make its bow Friday afternoon, May 12, in three diamonds—Lincoln at Norfolk, Hastings at Grand Island and Fairbury at Beatrice. The program of 120 championship games has been split into two seasons, each of sixty games, and award of the pennant will hinge on the result of a post-campaign series in which the winner of the first season will compete with the winner of the second. The regular season is to have its windup Labor day—Monday, Sept. 4—after which the winning teams in the two split seasons will wage their contest for flag honors.

Interest is keyed at a high pitch in the three cities drawing the opening day games. Beatrice supporters are predicting a first day attendance of four to five thousand. Grand Island boosters have been organizing to give Beatrice a merry argument for opening day attendance laurels and Norfolk fans are prepared to welcome the Lincoln club with a turnout that will keep step with the crowds in the two other State league cities.

Strength of Teams Unknown.

Dope tells nothing worth while in attempting to compare the strength of the six State league entries. Every team on the circuit is a new, untried aggregation Exhibition games during the spring tryout campaign have indicated, however, that the State league will not lack for young talent that is capable of putting on a worthwhile article of the national game. Early changes may be expected in the playing personnel of practically every club on the circuit, and the team managers not satisfied with their lineups will be combing the market for talent which will strengthen the weak spots.

The Lincoln club, which pulled out Thursday afternoon for Norfolk, is starting the campaign with an uncertain pitching staff. Hook Bailey and Jim House have impressed Manager Buck Beltzer as being the two most reliable flingers on his staff. Ability of the other pitchers to go the pace will be decided during the first two or three weeks of the campaign. The local owners, however, are hopeful of assembling a team which will make the capital city's entry a contender for the flag and they will not be slow to make changes if new talent is needed to keep Lincoln in the forefront of the fight.

Two of the players released by Lincoln this week—First Baseman Comiskey and Pitcher Hutchins—have gone to Norfolk for tryouts with Manager Burt Marr's Elkhorns.

Smith Grabs Wiggington.

Manager Harry Smith of Hastings, on the eve of the opening game, acquired Pitcher Wiggington, released yesterday in Omaha. Wiggington is the Schuyler, Neb., flinger who pitched so creditably during the state amateur tournament in Lincoln last September, winning the special trophy awarded to the most efficient twirler during the tourney. Wiggington was touted to make good with the Omaha Western league club, but failed to make the class A grade. In State league company, however, it is the general belief that the Schuyler boy will easily prove his worth.

George Segrist's Fairbury Coyotes rounded out their preparations by making the drive to Superior, where the Segrist athletes defeated the Superior independents Wednesday, 7 to 6. The count was 2 to 2 up to the ninth, when a string of Superior errors and a pair of home run wallops by McDermott and O'Connor, Coyote sluggers, broke up the ball game.

Grand Island's team took on Giltner in a Wednesday exhibition, the Third City clan winning the argument, 9 to 5.

Frat Teams Pass Second Round Play

The second round in the interfraternity baseball tournament at the University of Nebraska was completed Wednesday afternoon. Third round play was started Thursday afternoon, with games at Rock Island park and the high school diamond. Second round results:

Silver Lynx beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 13 to 12.

Phi Kappa Psi beat Delta Upsilon, 11 to 5.

Alpha Sigma Phi beat Phi Gamma Delta, 9 to 3.

Sigma Phi Epsilon beat Delta Chi, 9 to 5.

Acacia beat Kappa Sigma, 12 to 6.

Beta Theta Pi beat Delta Tau Delta, 9 to 3.

Farm House beat Omega Beta Pi, 6 to 5.

White Sox Star Making Good on Ability to Pitch Ball Where He Aims.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

(International News Service.)

NEW YORK, May 11.—A discerning individual in the stands arose on his haunches at the start of the seventh inning and delivered himself of the following.

"What's the matter with you tramps?"

Charley Robertson, recruit pitcher of the Chicago White Sox was on the job again.

It was New York's first glimpse of the new sensation and, although the merry villagers hailed him with throaty emphasis as he came to the bench at the end of each inning, the popular verdict seemed to be that Robertson didn't have much Outpitched Carl Mays.

Perhaps he didn't. Perhaps, also that was the reason the Yanks failed to get more than two lone hits through the first six innings of that ball game. Perhaps, too, it accounted for the fact that the Yanks, after sending over the tying run with three singles in the seventh, were unable to score again that day, and ultimately were beaten in the eleventh inning, with Carl Mays, their ace, doing his underhanded stuff throughout

Robertson may appear to lack real deception. Indeed, his fast one is not so fast as Johnson's or Alexander's, and his curve may lack the break of some other pitchers, but—Robertson's control is perfect.

Control the Big Test.

That is the answer, as it always will be. It is the ultimate and final test of good and bad pitching

It was what made that taboo individual, Eddie Cicotte, a really great pitcher after years of mediocrity.

The claim was often made for Cicotte that "he could throw a ball through a knothole," and, if necessary, we presume he could. And from what he uncovered yesterday, Robertson is no less accurate than the departed Eddie. The youth showed himself to be a really fine pitcher and we venture the prediction that, barring the unforseen, he will remain around the big league circuit for some years to come.

Touching the Bases.

They exhibited an "Old Master," in Washington yesterday and critics voted the exhibition a huge success. Walter Johnson, making his second start of the season, held the free-swinging Browns in check all the way and the Senators got away with a 2 to 1 victory.

Senor Luque was sent to the locker room by the Braves yesterday. His departure came in the seventh inning after the Reds were far out of the running. Score, 9 to 3.

The Indians lost their second straight to the now respected Athletics when Jimmy Dykes smote a homer with one on in the eighth inning.

Charley Robertson of no-hit fame out-pitched Mays in eleven innings out of eleven, and the White Sox beat the Yankees 2 to 1.

The Tygers pulled out a ninth-inning victory, their third straight over the Red Sox, doubles by Bassler and Blue doing the business. Score, 10 to 9.

Art Neff was the Big Bertha in the Giants' second straight victory over the Cardinals. Not only did he out-pitch Jeff Pfeffer, but drove in all the Giants' runs with two singles that came at opportune moments. Score, 3 to 2.

Lee Meadows confined the Cubs to three hits and the Phils scored a shutout.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 11.

Stocks were under further selling pressure today on professional liquidation and short selling. Easy money and better industrial conditions were neutralized by the absence of public interest. Sales approximated 1,100,000 shares.

Quotations at the opening of today's stock market indicated further reduction on bullish accounts in the course of the session. Losses running from large fractions to one point soon were made by junior rails, metals, chemicals and miscellaneous specialties. Oils made no marked response to the still higher prices posted by Standard Oil interests and independent refiners. Commission houses were advising customers to take profits in the present uncertain state of domestic money rates and the international situation. The heaviest features of the early trading included Texas and Pacific, Utah Copper, Industrial Alcohol, Woolworth and Tobacco Products.

Speculative syndicates and professional operators supplied stocks freely, causing further large inroads on prices in the afternoon. Bears were encouraged to attack the list when the market failed to show any recuperative power following the establishment of a 3½ per cent call money rate. Selling was widespread and a long list of representative shares and less prominent issues sustained losses of 1 to 3 points.

Liquidation of inactive specialties, obscure steels, the cheaper rails and shippings made steady progress during the morning. American Ice, American Writing Paper, preferred, Continental Can, Nova Scotia Steel, Otis Steel, preferred, Texas and Pacific, New Orleans, Texas and Mexico, and Chicago and Alton, preferred, lost 1 to 3 points. Several of the motor equipments, American Car and Mercantile Marine, preferred, eased 1 to 2 points. A brief rally under lead of the oils was cancelled before noon when selling of Studebaker, American Woolen and Investment Rails assumed wider dimensions. Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Heavy buying in the later dealings of independent steels, notably Lackawanna, Republic and Vanadium, at gains of 1 to 3 points, gave the market the first semblance of support. The close was irregular.

GRAIN MARKETS.

CHICAGO, May 11.

WHEAT—Big deliveries on May contracts failed today to stop a material upturn in wheat prices during the early dealings. The wheat taken in and paid for amounted to a million and a quarter bushels but it went into strong hands, and the market promptly advanced. Reports that German arrangements for the purchase of foodstuffs from Argentina and for supplying Russia had been approved by the allies tended to help lift values. The opening, which ranged from ¼c decline to ½ cents advance, with May $1.38 to 1.38¾ and July $1.23¾ to 1.24¼c, was followed by a slight general sag, and then to a rise all around to well above yesterday's finish.

As the close of trading approached May wheat took a decided further upward swing. Buying for seaboard account was largely responsible. There were indications that export business on a liberal scale would be put through. The market closed strong, 2@7½c net higher, with May $1.45@1.45¼, and July $1.26¾@1.27.

Activity increased in wheat during the final half hour the volume of trading for the day, however, could scarcely be called an unusual aggregate. Upturns in price for other months than May were confined to ordinary limits. The greatest advance being 3c for July delivery. The closing price for July was $1.20, the top figures reached.

CORN—Corn and oats were firmer with wheat. After opening a shade off to a shade advance, July 64¼ to 64¼@⅜, the corn market declined a little and then scored gains for all months.

In the later dealings corn continued to rise with wheat. The close was firm, ⅞ to 1⅝@1¾ net higher, July 65¼ to 65¼@⅜.

OATS—Oats started unchanged to ⅛c higher, July 39⅝c and then paralleled the action of corn.

PROVISIONS—Lower quotations on hogs wakened the provision market.

value of these securities, the earnings, the physical value and other plans. A period of six years was used in compiling the data.

T. A. Polleys made the concluding argument for the Northwestern for the purpose of showing that lands in the state are assessed at only a fraction of their real value, while the railroad are listed at more than they are actually worth. He presented tables showing the sales of land for a period of years, the prices of these lands and the assessed value. There were also tables of mortgages, showing that land thus pledged was assessed a little more than it was mortgaged for. The value of land in thirty-seven counties as shown by the sales was $94.25 per acre, while it was assessed at only $49.95 per acre. It was also argued that the railroads should be assessed on the same basis as other property.

R. D. Pollard for the Burlington stated that in 1915 his company paid in taxes in Nebraska $1,104,574.39 and in 1921 it paid $2,297,533.55 with the same mileage. The Burlington assessment in Nebraska is $16,010 per mile, while the engineering department of the railway commission has found that the reproduction value is $43,002 per mile and the depreciated value is $36,573. Mr. Pollard also called attention to land assessments and stated that while these only equalled forty-five per cent of the sales values, the board had equalized them for 1920 at sixty-eight per cent of the transfers. For the year 1921 lands in the state were reduced fifteen per cent in valuation, but there was no decrease in railroad assessments.

Says Much Property Escapes.

Mr. Pollard stated that while all property in the state except railroads is supposed to be assessed at sixty-eight per cent of its value much is valued at less and a great deal escapes altogether. If the Burlington were assessed at sixty-eight per cent, it would be valued for taxation at $29,241 per mile, which is sixty-eight per cent of $43,002, which the railway commission has found to be the reproduction new value of the road.

The stock and bonds of the Burlington amount to $36,525 per mile. Mr. Pollard said, and if they were all thrown on the market at once they would sell for much less, yet the road in Nebraska is assessed at $16,040 per mile and other property is assessed at much less than it is worth.

Attention was called to the fact that in 1920 bank deposits in Omaha amounted to $8,390,830, yet all the money reported for taxation in Douglas county last year was $5,339,350 or five per sent. The same was true of other counties, it was declared.

The board is required to use three methods in arriving at the value of railroads said Mr. Pollard. These include the value placed by the railway commission, the stocks and the bonds and the capitalization of the net earnings for five years. By averaging the results of these computations the value of the road in Nebraska is found to be $41,076 per mile, and he asked that it be fixed at this figure.

DEATH IN WAKE OF WIND STORM

vicinity at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening demolished farm buildings and injured a number of people, destroyed telephone and telegraph lines and blew down or tore up by the roots great trees, some of them seven feet in circumference. Little damage was done in Lexington, as the twister passed through the extreme southeast corner of the town. No complete story of the destruction wrought can as yet be given because of the wires being down in so many places.

The buildings on the farm of Henry Westmeyer, just east of Lexington, were destroyed. A large grove surrounded the structures and the trees were twisted and matted as a man would break so many matches. Mr and Mrs. Westmeyer and their children were in the cave and escaped unharmed.

The section house east of Lexington was gracefully lifted from its foundation and moved and relocated with little damage.

Farm Buildings Missing.

Mike Wilson's farm buildings have not been found with the exception of the dwelling, which was left intact. The family of five were in the cave, so they were uninjured. The wind rolled a large rug in the parlor into one pile, but the house was left standing.

The dwelling house of Ben Berman was carried away and has not yet been located. If the family of five were at home they were doubtless victims of the storm.

A doctor was called to the home of Jack Ward, twelve miles southeast of Lexington, a daughter having been injured.

A report has reached Lexington to the effect that the farm residence of Art Neilson, fifteen miles north of here, was blown twenty rods down into the creek. His wife and baby were in the house and the former was rendered unconscious. When she came to, the kitchen cabinet was on top of her and the baby was in the sink. Neilson was in the hog barn and was not hurt.

Warren Miller, a workman employed on the river bridge south of here, was hurt while in a shack which was hurled into the stream.

Reports coming in indicate that much damage was done south of Lexington. The storm traveled in a northeasterly direction. First came an awful cloud of dust, followed by hail and rain.

DAMAGE IN KNOX.

Grandstand and Bandstand at Bloomington Fair Grounds Blown to Pieces By Wind—Roofs Are Carried Quarter of Mile.

(Special to The Star.)

BLOOMFIELD, Neb., May 11.—The grandstand, bandstand, ticket office and some small buildings on the grounds of the Knox county fair association were blown to pieces by a small twister that swept through the east edge of the city at a little after midnight. Sections of the roof were carried for a distance of a quarter of a mile. The buildings were not insured against wind storm and the loss will be almost total. A number of out buildings in the east part of town were blown to pieces but the storm apparently reached its maximum when it hit the large amphitheatre. The general direction of the storm was from the southwest to the northeast. The work of rebuilding will be started immediately.

Repart From Kearney.

(Special to The Star.)

KEARNEY, Neb., May 11.—According to reports reaching here early this morning, a tornado caused considerable damage in the vicinity of Lexington last night. The storm broke south of the river, about 7 o'clock it crossed north, swinging east of the city, and cut a path through the country about 200 yards wide, and fifteen miles long.

One man was swept from the Platte river bridge, and when rescued was found to have received a broken leg. A Union Pacific employe sought refuge in a section house, which was picked up and wrecked. He is considered seriously injured and may die. Others suffered slight hurts from flying debris and glass. Outbuildings were razed, and directly in the storm path, all communication lines were laid flat on the ground. It is impossible to get in touch with the farm area north of Lexington where, it is feared, considerable damage took place.

Reports from Sumner indicate that the tornado which struck east of Lexington last night, passed between Sumner and Gallaway.

The farm home of Art B. Guerney, four miles west of Sumner, was completely destroyed. The family escaped injury miraculously.

John Wickard, and his family, sought refuge in a storm cellar and when they again ventured out, the house and all buildings on the farm were found to have been razed.

At James Johnson's place five miles west, the house was damaged and all other buildings on the premises were laid flat. It is feared the storm loss in the country north from Lexington to Callaway and Sumner will be very heavy. Many farmers have lost live stock and had buildings on their premises wrecked.

No fatalities have been reported up to the noon hour. Heavy rains followed the tornado.

together, have taken money and valuables to release prisoners sentenced to jail for violation of the liquor laws and that the judge himself, has accepted whisky in exchange for valuables left by prisoners, and that the sheriff had promised protection to men who sought to handle liquor in and through Thurston county. In addition, there is a petition to the Governor stating that both Judge Flynn and Sheriff Rutledge neglect, fail and refuse to do their duty in the enforcement of prohibition in Thurston county. There are twenty-eight joint sworn affidavits to the governor, regarding liquor violations as to both Judge Frank Flynn and Sheriff Charley Rutledge and 141 separate signers requesting the governor to remove Judge Frank Flynn and 125 separate signatures against Sheriff Charley Rutledge. There are also names of thirteen residents who will not sign papers but will testify in court if called upon to show that those men have been lax in law enforcement.

"One affidavit from Agnes Reese, a squaw girl, corroborated by a hotel proprietor of Walthill, Ed Cottrell, is that the sheriff, while in an intoxicated condition tried to get entrance to her room. An affidavit by Captain Louis Dick, an Indian scout 72 years old, says that he saw both officers drunk on many occasions. Petitions are signed by bankers, farmers, housewives, laborers and business men from the different cities in Thurston county.

"According to the statement of the investigators to Governor McKelvie, County Judge Frank Flynn admitted that during the last thirty days he had received whisky and drank whisky from strangers, at the court house in Pender, Nebraska.

The principal petition is signed by Pender citizens, the list being headed by O. D. Aldrich, a banker. Walthill, and one or two other towns of Thurston county are also represented. A number of the signers are Indian tribesmen, but the majority are white people.

Liang Shih-Yi, Deposed Premier Refugee at Kobe

TOKIO, May 11.—Liang Shih-Yi, deposed premier of the Pekin Chinese government following the defeat of his backer, Chang Tso-Lin, arrived at Kobe today as a refugee. Liang Shih-Yi had been absent from Pekin for some time previous to Wu Pei-Fu's victory. He was reported in Shantung and evidently made his way to Kobe from that province of China which was not affected by the civil war. His arrest and prosecution had been ordered by President Hsu.

Both fighters arrived here from their training camps and both were in the pink of condition. [illegible] issued statements saying they were confident of victory, but added the true sporting hope that "may the best man win."

Carpentier spent his last [illegible] of training preparing for in-fighting in the belief that Lewis would try to carry the combat to him in the early rounds in hope of landing a knockout before the fifth or sixth round.

"Carp's" Scouts See Lewis.

The Frenchman's scouts, who had visited Lewis's training quarters, reported that Lewis was prepared to rush the battle from the very beginning and in-fighting has been one of Georges' weak points. Admission was charged this afternoon when the fighters weighed in, the proceeds going to charity.

Public interest in the fight is running high and all the seats for the Olympia, where it will be staged, have been sold. A large number of the spectators will be women.

Carpentier, who was almost completely stripped, weighed in at [illegible] pounds. Lewis, who was fully clothed, weighed in at [illegible] pounds.

LIFE AND CHARACTER READING

The most dangerous and violent types of the animal Taurus and the animal man Taurus have been subjugated by the spirit of love. Valuable bulls, which nothing could subdue have been instantly soothed and led captive by children who love them, and in whom they have confidence. And so with the animal man. Taurus people should avoid all stimulating food and drink. Many murderers are found among the men who inflame their native passions by the use of alcoholic stimulants.

People born on this date come under the sign of Taurus and they should strive to possess their own souls and find the path of silence which leads to the temple of Peace. They should remember that "He that ruleth his spirit is greater than he who taketh a city."

The Star Want Ads will be of great assistance in helping you to find just the right kind of a summer home, and they will assist in subletting your city home. Use them. They are your friends.

Lawyers Agree Will Speed Up Small Hearing

COURTHOUSE, WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 11.—That speed will be the watchword of the prosecution in carrying through to completion the trial of Governor Len Small was indicated by state lawyers as they awaited the call of court this morning.

State's attorney, C. Fred Mortimer of Sangamon county, chief of prosecution counsel, declared that he will limit his opening address to the court and jury to one hour and a half.

It was said that no other prosecution lawyer would speak and that an agreement had been reached whereby all argument would be delayed until the opening address had been completed.

That the calling of the first prosecution witnesses to the stand is anticipated was evidenced by the fact that the prosecution wired several witnesses to appear today.

British Steamer Seneca Ice Bound

WASHINGTON, May 11.—British steamer Seneca has been ice bound off Cape Canso, Nova Scotia, since May 4, with the Canadian coast guard cutter Montcalm endeavoring to break the ship loose before she drifts ashore on the banks in the vicinity, according to reports received by the hydrographic office from the Canadian service. Dispatches received today said the two ships were closely hemmed in by ice which extended "as far as can be seen."

SPECIAL TRAINS FOR CONVENTION OF LEGION-MEN

To Leave Omaha, Lincoln and Falls City for Meeting in New Orleans.

Carnival by Norfolk Legion and Auxiliary Nets Organations $2,900.

The Nebraska department of the American Legion expects to provide at least three trains for state delegates to the annual convention at New Orleans in October, Adjuant I. B. O'Connell declared in announcing tentative plans for the convention. The trains will leave Omaha Lincoln and Falls City, under the plans. Headquarters has requested the approximate number that plan to attend.

NORFOLK—The three-night carnival, held here recently better known as the "Cactus Center Round Up," staged by the Legion post and Auxiliary, resulted in approximately $2,900 accruing to the two treasuries.

BATTLE CREEK—The local Auxiliary unit, one of the newest in the state, is conducting a membership drive, aided by the Legion post. An entertainment was held recently, the Legionnaires serving army chow in army style.

OMAHA—Daisies will be planted upon the grave of each war veteran buried in local cemeteries on Mother's Day, May 14. The flowers will be planted after the ceremonies conducted by the Legion Auxiliary.

LINCOLN—If there is a good speaker in posts in the state that will be available for Memorial day address, state headquarters has requested to be advised. Such speakers will be in demand for the occasion and the Legion wants to fill the engagements with its own men.

NEBRASKA CITY—Adam Schellinger post No. 8 went over the top in its membership campaign last week, reaching a goal of 251 paid members. Three hundred is the number sought. The superintendent of schools is the post adjuant.

GRAND ISLAND—Two teams of five members each are conducting a campaign here that will close May 26, when the post will hold a big initiation program for new members.

SCOTTSBLUFF — Readings, orchestral and musical numbers, and a dinner featured a program put on here Saturday night by members of the Auxiliary. More than 150 attended.

OMAHA—Fifth and sixth grade pupils in Nebraska schools who participate in the Legion essay contest that closes June 15, may compete on three subjects, to-wit. "The Great American and What He Did for Our Country;" "The Story of the Constitution of the United States" and "Clothing and Feeding and Keeping Our People Warm." The contest is designed to help in the Legion's patriotic and better citizenship campaign.

PLATTSMOUTH—The forty-page booklet issued by Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 66, containing post information and ethics on the flag, a history, by-laws, etc., has received the attention of state headquarters, which advises other posts to obtain a copy and publish similar booklets in their own community.

CLARKSON—So successful was the first production of the home talent play put on by the local post, that it was produced again this week. The first preformance netted more than $150.

SPALDING—Dan Heil, local post adjuant, has resigned to file as a candidate for county clerk. The post now has a membership of 42 out of a possible 65. The 1921 membership was 18.

LINCOLN — One-twelith of the posts in Nebraska have contributed to the graves decoration fund and headquarters has urged more generous support as the time for receiving funds will soon expire. The funds now amounts to $116.15.

ST. EDWARD — Packed houses greeted the two night stand of the home talent play put on by the Legion post and the Musa club here May 4 and 5. The membership of both clubs was used in the play. The proceeds were divided.

CULBERTSON—Another old time dance was put on by the local post Saturday night, which was largely attended. The post will foster a motion picture show in the near future to increase the treasury funds. The band will assist.

LINCOLN — Temporary Auxiliary charters have been mailed to Spalding, Schuyler, Oconto and Harrison. Albion received its permanent charter last week.

Big Rattlesnake Killed in Geneva

Special to The Star.)

GENEVA, Neb., May 11.—A rattlesnake was killed on the sidewalk in the main section of this city Tuesday by A. H. Steven. A small school boy saw the reptile first and did not seem afraid of it. The snake had three rattles and a button.

Predict Convention of Elks at Columbus Biggest in History

COLUMBUS, Neb., May 11—The annual convention of the Nebraska order of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, to be held here June 21 and 22, will be one of the largest ever attended and provide a program of entertainment that will stand out in the records of these meetings, according to indications and plans being made by the committee on arrangements.

The contest for the silver trophy for the lodge whose officers best exemplify the ritualistic work is expected to increase interest in the meeting. James E. McFarland of Watertown, S. D., donor of the cup, announced at the Omaha meeting last year that he would award a cup each year to the lodge whose officers best exemplified the work.

There are two districts in Nebraska each with a deputy grand exalted ruler, who is required to visit the lodges in his district once during the year.

Past officers of the Lincoln lodge will represent the South Platte district in the competitive exemplification of the initiatory ritualistic work at the meeting, it is announced.

Building Program at Fremont Is an Unusually Big One

(Special to The Star.)

FREMONT, Neb., May 11.—Members of the commercial club are enthusiastic over Fremont's growing building program. Recent reverses, in the removal of one company to Omaha and the financial crisis which resulted in the consolidation of three banks have been more than offset, it is claimed, by the recent activities. The building program runs to a total of a million dollars and more than half of this work is now under way. Henry Fredrickssen's new alfalfa-corn products mill has been erected at Clarkson and the Northwestern intersection. It will begin working within six weeks, it is said.

Smith Acquitted of Kidnaping by Otoe County Jury

(Special to The Star.)

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 11.—Daniel Smith has been acquitted by a jury in the Otoe county district court of the charge of kidnaping James Estes, a Lincoln colored man, during the recent labor trouble in this city. The jury was out an hour and three-quarters before returning a verdict. Smith was alleged to have been in the mob which kidnaped Estes, took him to Iowa, where he claimed he was beaten and kicked and pushed or thrown into the icy waters of the Missouri.

Smith put forth an alibi, saying that on the night of the kidnaping he went to the Missouri Pacific station, where he remained a half hour, after which he went to a soft drink parlor and engaged in a game of cards. Austin Hampton testified that he was with Smith all of this time and that it would have been impossible for the defendant to have made the trip across the river.

Martin Mullaney, convicted at the last term of court as having been the brains of the kidnaping party, is now serving a three-year sentence in the penitentiary. Smith is an ex-service man and was a member of the Will Hayward colored regiment. He is the possessor of a Croix de Guerre, presented to him for bravery.

Wheat Destroyed By Strong Winds In West Nebraska

(Special to The Star.)

CHAPPELL, Neb., May 11.—The wheat crop in Deuel county and the vicinity of Julesburg, Colo., will be almost a complete failure and because there is little left to insure farmers are taking out very little hail insurance. This is usually a big wheat producing section, but recently there were three days of heavy wind which tore much of the wheat from the ground. This was followed by a rainy period, during which four inches of water fell, but it came too late to be of any benefit to the wheat.

Half Century in Single Location

Astry at Brownville and they are the parents of five children, one of them Mrs. May Roberts, being postmistress at Nemaha.
